GREAT AMERICAN REMEDY

DR. G. C. VAUGHN'S ADVERTISEMENT for 1847.—THE CHEAP AMERICAN REMEDY—Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture.—This valuable Panacea is now being introduced into Europe, the East and West Indies, South America and all other parts of the globe, where disease exists in any form. The United States and the Canadas have for the past three years severely tested the virtues which the proprietor, upon the introduction of this medicine, hesitated not to say it possessed. In introducing this GREAT VEGETABLE REMEDY, the most startling promises were made, on the part of the medicine—so novel was the theory—the principles upon which the cures were to be effected, that people threw up their hands and cried, what next! Even credulity, startled with surprise, and the so called "Faculty" made themselves merry over the "new humbug." But mark the result—the three years have passed away—public opinion, the voice of millions, and more of observing individuals, have stamped this REMEDY the most singular, wonderful, incomprehensive, and miraculous curative power ever produced. The ONE GREAT DISEASE, which the proprietor of this medicine had the presumption to say existed, and that ALL various diseases were but secondary, has now millions of believers.—They must believe, for they have witnessed the effect of this restorative, It has conquered ALL cases, by simply conquering the ONE. The "Old School" now open their eyes. Their old dogmas, like the morning mist, fly before the light of truth, and common sense now seeks a road to health its own way, instead of closing its eyes, and being led. The truth of the principle upon which this article cures is established, and the statement is again boldly, most emphatically, most decidedly reiterated: This medicine will drive from the body every disease which has a name—every disorganization of the system which can exist. If bone and muscle remain, this medicine will restore to a perfect state. The old calomel, bleeding, blistering system is about to fall. The proof daily presenting itself of the truth of our theory, is a prop out of the old structure, which will soon tumble to the ground, a shapeless mass of ignorence and deception.

Invalids resort at once to this medicine. It is a strictly vegetable remedy, the product of our own soil—a compound of twenty two ingredients. Each root has its particular part of the system to act upon, and this action is always produced—its effect upon the whole system is immediately apparent. Testimony of the highest character is daily coming to the proprietor full of truth, and you will always see names, places and dates. Not a particle of false evidence is offered on the part of this great curative, The most careful perusal of the pamphlet is desired. It gives the character of all the secondary complaints which prevails, and which have been cured by this article. Evidences of cures in some of the most dreadful cases of lingering complaints which it has been the fortune of any medicine to cope with. is found—cases which have been left to die. Hundreds in every large city of our Union and the Canadas have to thank this article for their lives, and so do they, as letters in the possession of the proprietor will show.

This great medicine will cure DROPSY, in every stage; Gravel, and all kinds of difficulty in the urinary organs; complaints of the kidneys—weakness of the back; female irregularities immediately checked, and a healthy tone given to the system. Let every female at once resort to this safe medicine, and use no other. Diseased liver, indigestion, bilious complaints, dyspepsia instantly relieved: rheumatism, gout, &c., produced by inaction of the blood, will always find relief; inflamed lungs, cough, even consumption, unless the patients and their medical advisers were deceived, has been cured by this medicine; scorfula, and all eruptive diseases, piles, erysipelas, Inflammation of the eyes, palpitation of the heart, sick headache, jaundice, fever and ague—the whole catalogue might be named—seek this remedy; buy no other.

Put up in 30 oz. bottles, at $2; 12 oz. bottles, $1 each.

Be careful that you are not imposed upon.—Each bottle has the words "Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture" blown upon the glass—the written signature of "G. C. Vaughn" on the directions, and G. C. Vaughn, Buffalo, stamped on the cork. None others are genuine

Mackenzie's Tonic Ferbrifuge.

AGUE & FEVER
CHILL
or Intermittent Fever and the various forms of
BILIOUS DISEASE
permanently cured by
DR COLIN S. MACKENZIE'S
TONIC FEBRIFUGE

Its Infallible Health Restoring Properties fully Established.

It is now known as the All-Powerful

Fever and Ague Destroyer

IN PRESENTING this well established and powerful sanative Medicine to the people of Indiana and the citizens generally of the south western States, the proprietors feel full confidence that it will act as successfully in the districts where it is now produced, as in the Ague and Fever visited regions of Indiana, Illinois and Ohio, Michigan, and Western Pennsylvania and New York. In the States above mentioned, its universal celibrity as a certain, prompt and permanent is generally conceded; and it is resorted to by all thus afflicted, in preference to all other preparations claming to this disease.

Volumes of irrefragible testimony might accompany this notice; but the proprietor believes that the true method of apprising the afflicted of the perfectly curative properties of the Tonic Ferbrifuge, is the trial of its miraculous power over

Fever and ague.

So far the proprietor has found it only necessary to test its practical and health restoring blessings in the communities where it has been introdueed. In the proud testimonials so elicited, the worth of the Ferbrifuge is made manifest; and it is therefore confidently sent upon its healing errand into the Valleys of the Wabash and Maumee. He sends it there as a Medicine, now regarded in the Northern and Western States as a cure whose progress is undimmed, and

Without a Solitary Failure.

In short, sustained wherever tested, (and the evidences can be furnished, if there any inclined to be skeptical,) as

Ague Breaking, Fever Removing and Health Renewing.

As such, Mackenzie's Tonic Ferbrifuge is now offered to the Ague diseased of Indiana, and the States adjoining, and to those emigrants and travellers who may be attacked by the Ague and Fever away from their homes and families. It is submitted as an infallible remedy for the eriffic local diseases attendant upon our soils, and the miasmatic exhalations arising therefrom.

By properly adhering to the directions accompanying it, or giving head to the warnings that the system invariably gives in advance of malady, the constitution may not only be rescued from its thraldom to the ravager, but even its stealthiest approaches frustrated before allowed a foothold.

To the prudent, what has been stated above will answer as well as if a volume of verbiage were placed before them. To all those who resist this invitation to try a remedy that has always succeeded whenever applied, the only words that can be said, are—

The wise man prospers on the fool's downfall,
'Tis wisdom's part to break disease's thrall.

Or art thou gazing on yon silver light,

When we watched the soft twilight together,
Then you said that tho' far I were banished,
Thy fond love should stay with me forever.

I have watched the pale moon, my dear brother,
Shining forth, from the Dome of the sky,
And have fancied thy spirit, my brother,
Smiled on her, who was gazing on high.

The Fort Wayne Sentinel.

Fort Wayne, Sept. 6, 1847.

THO'S. TIGAR, Esq., Sir:—Allow me to present my compliments through your columns, to A. J. Bair Esq., of the Kosciusko Republican. I this morning had the pleasure of reading an article in that paper of last week, in relation to the Fathers of Temperance.—Mr. Bair seems to think the article in the Times and Press of Aug. 28 in reply to Defrees' remarks in relation to that society, rather too intemperate for the President of a temperance society to make, and has, as I think very ungenerously selected all the hard words in the article, and combined them so as to make it appear pretty strong indeed. Now if the Republican Editor had published the whole letter the people could have judged for themselves of its merits, and would no doubt have given it a proper consideration. As a member of that order, I feel it my duty to uphold it, believing it to be one of the best things for true temperance ever started, and I have no objection to the whole Press of the country expressing its opinion of it—yet when they know no harm of it, perhaps it might be as well if they would say as little against it as possible. Mr. Bair only speaks of the language used by the President, and says nothing really against the Order itself—but we uphold our president and think him fully justifiable in using any language he pleases towards the author of the article in the Journal—and because good luck placed him in a position to meet Mr. Defrees with his own weapons, he should not be condemned for using the Times and Press, to express his public and our private opinion of that individual.

No man should apply the term 'Drunken Loafer,' to any man, or set of men, unless he is prepared to stand up to it—and I think our president, is perfectly able take care of himself. A. BACHELOR.

From the Union.

THE DEATH OF SILAS WRIGHT.

The sudden death of this illustrious statesman will be felt as a great and lamentable event throughout the length and breadth of our land. He died of apoplexy, at his residence in Canton, New York, on the 27th instant.—He has been struck down without warning, in the splendid maturity of his great faculties, and in the midst of bright and almost boundless prospects of future usefulness and renown. In his death the democracy of our nation will mourn the loss of a statesman whose public and private life and character were alike the ornament and the honor of the political system out of which they grew.

To those—and there are many such—who hold that in a free government like ours, a devotion to public affairs and to political life as they are at present managed among us, is unfavorable to the development of the best and manliest qualities of character—to those who believe, in a republic, a long and successful political career must harden the heart against the better and kinder sympathies of our nature, and engender an ambition at once unscrupulous, overweening, and selfish—to those who tell us how hard it is for the eminent politician to keep his lips pure from guile, his heart free from stormy passions, and his hands unstained by practices of corruption—to those who assure us that the favor of the people must, under a democratic government, be won by fawning, and that the charms of high station are an overmatch for the strength even of the most steadfast integrity;—to all such objectors against the working of our free institutions upon the characters of our public men the life and the death of Silas Wright furnish a refutation at once conclusive and sublime.—From his boyhood he learned to be a statesman. His earliest impulses urged him to don the bright harness of democratic principles, and to go forth to battle in the thick of the fight for the Popular Cause. He passed thro' almost every form of official life. In the politics of his town, of his county, of his state, and of his country, he bore in quick succession a most leading and conspicuous part. In places of highest administrative power, in situations of subordinate ministerial trust and duty, in the silent labors of the committee room, and in the halls of senatorial eloquence and action—in every scene where mind is strained to its severest tension, and character put to its sternest ordeal—there, always foremost among the champions of popular rights, always holding fast to his principles as to his honor and religion—fearless to meet any crisis, prompt to assume any rightful responsibility—firm, calm, watchful, laborious, incorruptible—Silas Wright, himself a poor man and the poor man's friend, builded up the fair and stately fabric of his fame on the fast foundations of intellect and integrity.

And when the great crisis of his public career came at last, and his grateful country tendered to him, in quick succession, her highest judicial and executive stations, faithful to a scrupulous sensitiveness of honor, he rose superior even to the legitimate ambition of a great statesman, calmly put aside the most glittering rewards of public life and without impatience, or emotion, or effort, went back to his humble farm-house and his little farm, to till the earth with his own hands, and to earn his daily bread in the sweat of his brow!

All who knew Mr. Wright agree that his powers of mind were of the highest order.—Yet he persuaded and prevailed as much by the noble moderation of his spirit as by the vigor and comprehensiveness of his understanding. He carried into public affairs the best characteristics of prviate life. In the conflict of parties and of principles in the Senate chamber, always doing his duty with stern and scrupulous fidelity, he provoked no man to anger. In the memorable session of the twenty-seventh Congress he fought with matchless power the great battle of the people against privilege, and came out of the contest without having made an enemy.

Though, in the death of Mr. Wright. the democracy of the country must feel that it has lost one of its most powerful champions, yet the loss of his influence upon the character of politics, and of political aspirants among us, will be yet more severely felt. One of the brightest examples of political virtue no longer shines before men's eyes. It can be seen now only in the diminishing glass of remembrance. Other men may, perhaps, be found among us to serve as faithfully, and to plead as eloquently, the cause of the people, as did he whom we have lost. But it will be long before a similar combination of circumstances shall unite with the most splendid powers of intellect, the highest elements of public character, to form a career at once so instructive, so impressive, and so encouraging as that which has now closed in the grave of Silas Wright.

Gifted with talents of the highest order—blessed with a heart of the finest mould—with principles of the true democratic stamp, adapted to the free people among whom his lot was cast; and, with manners destitute of all affectation, of all the airs and arrogance of office, but recommended by all the simplicity and all the amiableness which distinguished those of Jefferson, of Madison, of Marshall—Silas Wright was the man to earn the respect and affections of his countrymen. He was truly the man of the people. Already many of his admiring countrymen were pointing him out, and holding him up for the highest office in the republic. But death has cut him off from all the splendor and all the interests of this world.—Yet, we must repeat, amid all his high qualities, there was one which pre-eminently deserves our notice and respect. Considering his pretensions and his qualifications, his distinguished abilities, and his numerous services, he was the last to claim, and the first to decline the offices which were almost showered upon him. At almost one and the same time three brilliant honors were tendered to his acceptance. He was urged to accept the governorship of New York. The President of the United States offered him a seat upon the bench of the Supreme Court, that noble object of almost the highest ambition. The democracy of the strongest representative body in the country offered him the honors of the Vice Presidency. Mr. Wright declined them all—and among them, the seat upon the Supreme Court bench, which he would have preferred to all the rest; and never can we forget the high-minded and noble letter which he addressed on that subject to one of our friends, one of the judges of the Supreme Court. We never were more impressed with reverence for any man, than on seeing that production, and weighing the reasons which prompted him to decline it. But he did decline it. But his desire to carry the State of New York for the democratic ticket for the presidency and vice presidency caused him at last to yield to his friends. No man could have submitted with better grace, and no man could have more loyally shown his devotion to his country and to his party.

NATIONAL CONVENTION.—Several of the Democratic papers are discussing the propriety of holding a National Convention for the nomination of candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency as though it were a matter for discussion at all. We regard it as one of the established usages of the party, and on no account to be departed from, if we would preserve the organization of the party and secure its success, and the only alternative we can see, would be the repetition of the disgraceful scenes, the bargain and intrigue of the canvass of '24. The 9th and 10th districts in this state have already acted in the premises, appointed their delegates, and will be on hand, at the drop of the hat.—If other districts in the state were too intent upon the spoils to attend to this matter in their Congressional Conventions, it is time they were moving. The great west has interests at stake which must not be neglected. —Goshen Democrat.

From the Bedford Sun, Aug 24.

COLORS OF THE SECOND INDIANA REGIMENT.

In the Washington Union of the 11th inst., is a communication from the pen of the Hon. Amos Lane, of this State, concerning the conduct of the Indiana troops on the battle-field, and the colors of the two Regiments. It is in reply to certain slanderous assertions made by one of the returned prisoners of Majors Gaines and Borland's party in Mexico; and is well worthy the pen of an Indianian.

But the writer has unintentionally fallen into an error concerning the flag of the second Regiment, which we deem it our duty to correct, in justice to those who so gallantly preserved it when about to fall into the hands of the enemy. After speaking very properly of the retreat of the Regiment he observes:

"Most of them (the men) rallied and fought like veterans; a few did not, but went like many others to the ranch. In this retreat the color bearer being wounded, fell, and with him the flag of the regiment. Major Dix of the paymaster's department, coming up at the moment, recovered these colors and handed them to Lieut. Kunkle of the same Regiment who bore them most gallantly the balance of the day. These colors were brought home with the Regiment, and are now in the hands of Captain Sanderson of New Albany, Indiana."

We have been definitely informed of the whole history of this flag, by many who fought under its 'stars and stripes,' and who were with it from the beginning to the end of the campaign. The following statement condensed from a full account of it furnished us by request by one of the "Lawrence Greys," may be relied on as correct.

The flag was made and presented to the "Spencer Greys," by the patriotic ladies of New Albany, Ia., before the Regiment was organized; after it was organized, this same flag was constituted the Regimental colors, and a sergeant and two corporals were detailed to bear and protect it; "this," in the language of our correspondent "they did most gallantly, until in the fierce conflict at Buena Vista, the bearer received a severe wound in the arm, which disabled him. He was afterwards killed. Consequently the colors fell to the ground, and lay until taken up by E. W. Moberly, a private in company F (the 'Lawrence Greys')—his clothing shows that he did it at no small risk. Moberly handed the flag to Lieut Col. Hadden. Hadden handed it to Major Dix, and Major Dix to Lieut. Kunkle of the "Spencer Greys." who bore it in triumph the remainder of the day, annd returned it unsullied by the hand of the enemy to the United States. It is now in New Albany, Indiana."

Thus it seems that it was not Major Dix, but a brave soldier in the ranks, who periled his life to save the flag, under which, most of the Regiment afterwards "rallied and fought like veterans."

The fact, as we understand it is, that the bearer was left in the rear, in the retreat, and when wounded the colors fell from his hands; young Moberly, soon after, casting a glance behind him, saw them lying on the ground, and immediately returned in the face of the advancing enemy, to where they lay, and when the Mexicans were within a few paces of him, and their balls were literally riddling his clothes, although none of them touched him, snatched them from their resting place, raised them aloft in triumph, and soon rejoined his comrades.

This was a brave and noble deed worthy of Jasper, and deserves to be recorded on the page of history, and remembered as long as the name of 'Buena Vista' is heard

The principal of these facts, we received from Major Gorman, on his return from Mexico, several weeks before the return of the Regiment.

We make this correction with pleasure not to disparage in the least the fair fame of Major Dix, for brave and noble daring, nor yet with a wish to derogate from the high merit of the excellent communication of Mr. Lane, who has exhibited a laudable desire to defend the reputation of his State, and her citizen soldiers, but to do justice to all without distinction of rank, and because we condemn from our heart the disposition too prevalent, to crown the officer with laurels unjustly torn from the brow of the brave private.

GEN. TAYLOR'S POLITICS.

The Express labors in a long, heavy colu article, to show that Gen. Taylor is a whig, a whole whig and nothing but a whig. We followed it through, expecting to see it ad something that it might claim as plausible evidence of its assertions. But we looked in vain. The sum and snpstance of the evidence of the evidence is about this: The Express heard Mr. [illegible]screw say that Mr. Thim Twist told him that Mr. Pea Straw had heard Mr. Flagginbottom affirm that Greeney F rierbung had heard Prentice Louisville decla that he was "for him, FOR him, FOR hi three times over—and that was evidence enough of Gen. Taylor's whiggery. No orthodox whig in the Union need ask for clea or more lucid evidence of the General's poli ical affinities than this!

But seriously. The Express effects to be lieve that the Democracy are very ma worried abot the General's politics, and a very anxious to know what they are. B that paper was never more mistaken in th world. The "contortions" and "grimaces" which that paper alludes, are to be found on in the Whig ranks. The democracy know enough about old Rough and Ready's politi for their present purposes. At the prop time they will know and reveal all that will necessary on this mooted point. For the present purpose it is sufficient for them to know that he is no more of a Whig than was Gen. Jackson; and thath is views on the pro ecution of the war, on the Tariff, on the B Question, on Abolitionism, and on Mexica Tom Corwin "shower-bath" Whiggery—w be fully known and proclaimed quite as so as the Whigs will want to see the develop ment.

Meantime, we commend the following scrap of historical knowledge to the understanding of our Whig neighbors by way of a comforte The New Orleans Southerner, speaking of Gen. Taylor's political sentiments, says: "we have never heard him state his creed; but we know that he was an original Jackson man When Gen. Jackson was a candidate the se ond time against Mr. Adams, Gen. Taylor and General Twiggs were stationed here. They took so active a part for Old Hickory, that the leaders of the Adams party remonstrated wit the Secretary of War, and Taylor and Twiggs were banished to the frontiers of Arkansas—Gen. Jackson reciprocated their attachme But to give a more minute history of his political course in by-gone days, and up to a not a very remote period: In 1823, he resid in Kentucky, and went for Gen. Jackson.—When by Clay's perfidy, in 1825, Gen. Jac son was defeated, that Clay might be made Adams Secretary of State, the whole of Ke tucky went with Taylor. From 1825 to 182 Taylor was the most determined advocate Jackson's election. He was gratified at his election: went with Jackson on the "Bank the United States" question; opposed th Bank; was stationed in Carlisle, a colonel in the United States army in 1832, and was th advocate of Jackson for a re-election; vote for him; sustained him on the tariff question, and was then an opponent of the tariff; in short, sustained Jackson's administration throughout in all its principles. In 1836 he resided in Louisiana, where he now resides, and sustained Mr. Van Buren, and voted fo him, and was at least a democrat in name and principle until 1839.

Since then we have seen no evidence of his turning whig, and no reason why he should unless it be the assaults of the whigs upon him and all those engaged in the war—the refus of Whig Legislatures to vote him a resolut of thanks, and the like whiggish acts.

☞ The last Northern mail brought us the following letter:

"FORT WAYNE, 23d Aug. 1847

SIR:—By an article in your paper of the 20th inst, this morning received, I perceive you say, "the Society of Fathers of Temperance and friends of Literature" was formed by "Drunken Loafers."

This note will explain to you who founde that Order. The undersigned has that hono and will expect from you a personal apology sufficient to satisfy a Gentleman.

Your ob't. servant, P. G. JONES."

To J. D DEFREES, Esq.

We spoke of the "Fathers of Temperance from their published principles, which incu cate drinking spirituous liquors, and if they a anything else than what we have characte ized them, all we have to say is, they have a poor way of showing it, and that is all the apo ogy we have to make.—Indiana State Journ

The Indiana State Journal has got itself into trouble. It contained an article some tw weeks ago, reflecting pretty severely upon the order of the "Fathers of Temperance," a s cret society recently started at Fort Wayne which differs from other temperance societi in this:—it allows every member to drink spirituous liquors, to the amount of a gill of brandy, two gills of wine, or a quart of be per day. Both of the Wayne papers have t ken up the cudgels, and the way they wa into Mr. Defrees' affections, is a caution to snakes! Hit him again! what business has he to be such a bigot?—Peru Herald.

Mr. Jones was in the habit of getting some what "balmy," and one night he was disco ered by a neighbor leaning against the side a church for a support. He hailed him wi "Halloa, Jones, you look serious—think of joining the church?" "Well" replied Jon "I incline considerably that way at present."

We clip the above from an exchange pape Can any one tell us who "Mr. Jones" is? Is he a Father of Temperance? Where did he come from? "From Maryland?"

☞ DR. JONES, Grand Father of the "Fa ers of Temperance," sent a challenge to the editor of the State Journal, for charging th the new order was gotten up by "Drunk Loafers." Defrees don't seem to be frig ened much—but says, in substance, that if the "Fathers" are not what he has called the th ought "to take in their sign." What will be the "up shot" of the affair, remains to be see —Lafayette Free Press.

EWING'S LETTER.—It is unfortunate fo the Hon. W. G. Ewing who has just been d feated for Congress in a fair fight, that he ca not keep his temper, but makes such gro and wanton exhibitions of ill nature as to di gust his best friends. During the canvass with Mr. Rockhill, we are informed by those who heard him, that he descended to the use of most ungentlemanly epithets, and that his speeches were better fitted for a midnight ca rousal at a doggery, than for the stump. Mr. Ewing was defeated as he deserved, and as he might expect to be in a democratic dis trict, and even after election, through the pub lic prints continues the same gross and insult ing language towards his competitor. We are glad there was decency, good sense and Democracy enough in the district, not to per mit such a man to fill the seat once honored by Andrew Kennedy, and we hope he will take the hint not to run again for Congress un til he's wanted.—Goshen Democrat.

COL. JEFFERSON DAVIS.—The Jackson Mississippian, says of the appointment of th gentleman to the office of U. S. Senator, by Gov. Brown: "No selection could have give greater satisfaction to the whole state than this. The official term of Col. Davis, unde this appointment, will continue only until the election of a Senator by the Legislature, which will meet in January next."

The Fort Wayne Sentinel.

Saturday, September 11, 1847.

INDIANA.—On our first page will be found the official returns of the Congressional election in the several districts.

We are still uncertain how the Legislature stands—or rather, what the precise whig majority is. The Senate is a tie: for the House, the State Sentinel gives a list of the members and their politics, by which it appears the whigs have a majority of 2—whigs 51, democrats 49. The State Journal, on the other hand, makes it—whigs 54, democrats 46. We notice one error in the Sentinel's statement. Mr. Pratt (democrat) is put down as the member from Huntington and Whitley, instead of Mr. Swihart, whig.

Democratic victory in Rhode Island.—Benj. Thurston, democrat, is elected to Congress from the western division of Rhode Island.—This is a democratic gain in rather an unexpected quarter. The delegation from Rhode Island is now equally divided—one democrat and one whig.

IOWA.—The late election in this State was of more importance than we had supposed.—Besides electing two democratic members of Congress, and other state officers, elections to fill vacancies in the Legislature were held in three counties which resulted in favor of the democrats, thus giving them a majority in that body, and securing the election of two democratic U. S. Senators next winter. Coonism, Locsumism, and McCartyism can't shine in Iowa after this. The State is regenerated—redeemed, and will henceforth be democratic.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.—So far as elections have been held, 96 democrats, 109 whigs, 1 native and 2 independents have been returned to Congress. Of the members yet to elect, 17 were democrats and three whigs in the last Congress. Should there be no change, the whigs and democrats will be tied, leaving the balance of power with the native and independent members. There will however, most likely be some whig gain in the elections yet to be held, and we think it probable there will be a whig majority of 6 to 10 in the House of Representatives.

HOAX!—Several papers are publishing an account copied from the Baltimore American of a terrible hurricane at Knightstown, Ind., which blew the tent of Welsh and Delavan's Circus "all to flinders," killing several women and children among the spectators, and scaring the four horses on which Levi J. North was riding, so that they run off and dashed his brains out, &c., &c. We feel sorry to spoil so good a story, but it is our duty to inform our readers that the whole story is a hoax—a vile fabrication.

Speaking of the circus, it it may be as well to remind our readers that this identical circus will be here next Saturday, when the curious will have a chance to see the celebrated Levi J. North, the man that didn't have "his brains dashed out" go through his unparalleled performances. He is universally allowed to be one of the first equestrians of the day. This circus is very favorably noticed in several of the papers.

NEW ORLEANS.—The yellow fever still rages with great fatality in New Orleans. The last account we have seen, gives the number of deaths for the previous 24 hours—in New Orleans 61, in Lafayette 19—total 80.

Melancholy Accident.—On Tuesday last, a young lad, on his way to Fulton county in this state, when within a mile or two of this city, fell from the wagon in which he was riding, and the wheels passed over his body causing his death in a few minutes.

Death in a Well.—On Wednesday morning last, Capt. J. G. Braddock, living near this place, lost his life in consequence of inhaling the gas commonly called the Damps. He had descended into his well for the purpose of getting up a rope which had fallen therein, and was immediately overpowered, and before assistance could be rendered he was a lifeless corpse. His loss will be severely felt in his neighborhood. He was Captain of the Aboite Dragoons, and had endeared himself to all by his urbanity and kindness.

FROM MEXICO.—We are still without any definite news from Mexico, although we are in daily expectation of accounts of a battle and the occupation of the city of Mexico.

It is rumored that Gen. Taylor is not going to advance on San Luis Potosi, and that a portion of his troops have been ordered to return to Matamoras to be embarked for Vera Cruz and join Gen. Scott.

The guerillas are rapidly increasing in numbers and audacity, and every arrival brings accounts of their depredations.

We give the 'Latest Streak' of the telegraphic dispatches from the Ohio Statesman:

The schooner Mississippi arrived at New Orleans with Vera Cruz dates to the 21st August.

News had reached that place that Gen. Scott's advance guard arrived at Agatta, 20 miles from the Capital, on the 13th.

The reinforcements under Capt. Wells were repulsed at the National Bridge, with the loss of pack mules, horses, and most of the baggage wagons, and returned to Vera Cruz on the 17th.

Twelve dragoons that were despatched to reconnoitre the bridge, had not been heard from, and it was supposed they had fallen into the hands of the guerillas.

It was rumored at Vera Cruz that Gen. Scott met the enemy, and was repulsed with a loss of 800 men, but no reliance was placed on the rumor; but his arrival at Agatta was believed.

The last division of his army, 4000 in number left Puebla on the 10th of August.

RETURN OF PAREDES TO MEXICO.—Gen. Paredes, ex-President of Mexico has returned to that country, from his exile. He has been in France for some time, and left there for Havanna, whence he embarked in the English post office steamer for Vera Cruz. The American consul at Havanna wrote to the authorities at Vera Cruz, by the same vessel, to look out for him, but he managed to land and get through the city before the consul's letter came to hand.

Paredes is hostile to the United States, and very bitter against Santa Anna. He is suspected of being in favor of establishing a monarchy in Mexico, and it is not improbable that his visit to France and mysterious return to Mexico may have some connection with that object.

Extract of a letter from Col. Wilson to the Secretary of War.

"HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF VERA CRUZ.—'I have the honor to report that on the 14th instant the British steamer Teviot, Captain May, arrived here from England and the Havana, having Gen. Paredes on board, under the assumed name of M. Martinez; who, in consequence of the tardiness of the boarding officer (Capt. Clark,) landed at between 6 and 7, a. m., incognito, from a four oared boat, apparently prepared for the occasion. In his transit through the gate of the mole, he was recognized by an inspector, who took no notice of him. Therefore, I immediately ordered the discharge of both him and Captain Clark—the former for having lost sight of the main object, notwithstanding my office is but a few yards from the mole.

'The General, having arrived at the house of a Mr. Jose G. Zamora, a native merchant, he presented a letter of introduction from Paris, and requested that horses might be directly furnished for himself and servant—a request immediately complied with; and but ten minutes elapsed from the time of his landing till he passed through one of the gates of the city on his way to the interior, without myself or any of my officers being able to avoid it, from the circumstance of his arrival and presence here being unknown, and the letters from the United States consul at the Havana, giving notice of his having left, not being delivered to me until after the Genaral's departure, owing to their being in possession of a lady passenger on board."

INDIANA VOLUNTEERS.

Governor's Proclamation—General Orders, &c.—Governor Whitcomb has issued a proclamation setting forth that Colonel James H. Lane of Lawrenceburgh is authorized to raise a regiment of volunteers from this state to serve during the war, and to be formed wholly or principally from the officers and men who have been in service in Mexico.

The Adjutant General has issued a general order, similar to the one issued last year. By this it appears that the officers of each company are to be elected, after the company is full, by a majority of the members, and the result is to be properly certified and forwarded to the Adjutant General. Three dollars and a half per month will be allowed the volunteer for clothing, and the clothing pay for six months will be advanced at the place of rendezvous, to enable the volunteers to provide themselves good and sufficient clothing. Fifty cents for every 20 miles travel from the place of enlistment to the rendezvous will be allowed, which is amply sufficient to defray all expenses of travel and subsistence until mustered into the United States Service, when every thing necessary will be furnished.

We subjoin a few of the last sections of the General Order, which give all the necessary information respecting the raising of the companies, the priority extended to the returned volunteers, &c., also a letter from Colonel Lane to the volunteers and citizens of Indiana—

XVII. As the authority to raise the regiment is by the Department given to Colonel Lane, no company will regard itself as accepted, until a written communication from him to that effect, is received by a member of the company. All applications on the subject therefore should be addressed to Col. James H. Lane at Indianapolis. And as it is required by the War Department, that the regiment shall be "formed wholly or principally from the officers and men who have been in service in Mexico," the following rules become necessary for carrying out that object.

1. The invitation is extended to all of the requisite age and vigor, whether they have been in service or not for the purpose of filling up deficient numbers, if necessary. But,

2. Should any who have been in service from this State in Mexico, apply to be received into any company after it is full, without regard to where their residence may have been in the State, they will have the preference, and for that purpose an equal number of fresh recruits who have not been in service and who were last received on the company's list, will give place to them. New recruits will not be disturbed unless applications on the part of volunteers who have been in service are made, and then only to the extent of such applications.

3. After the companies are reported to Col. Lane, he will still give the preference by accepting, in order, such companies, as have the largest number of volunteers who have already been in service in Mexico, until the ten companies composing the regiment are completed.

4. As there are 30 companies of returned volunteers in the State, and as it is not probable that any one of those companies will or can be collected and offered entire and complete, and as but 10 companies are now wanted, the propriety is suggested of different fractions of returned companies joining together under the present requisition, for the purpose of making whole companies.

XVIII. To avoid all error or mistake, the offer of a company to Colonel Lane for acceptance must be accompanied with the complete list or roster of the names of all the members of the company; stating against each name whether the member is a new recruit or a returned volunteer.

XIX. The commissions will be issued after the company to which they belong, is accepted, and of course not until Col. Lane reports it to the undersigned as by him accepted.

XX. No company therefore, will march to the place of rendezvous until directed by Col. Lane, which will be done in all cases by letter.

XXI. The commander-in-chief will repair to the place of rendezvous, when the regiment is concentrated there, to aid in its final organization, and generally of consulting the comfort and welfare of the troops.

TO THE RETURNED VOLUNTEERS
AND CITIZENS OF INDIANA:

It will be seen by the proclamation of His Excellency, Gov. Whitcomb, that I am authorized to organize a regiment of volunteer infantry, in which the Governor will co-operate. In the organization, my object will be to carry out, to the letter, the wishes and instructions of the Secretary of War and the Governor. Every effort will be used to form a corps that will be creditable to the State and service. To this end, it is deemed advisable to secure as many of the returned volunteers as possible. And I fondly hope that the officers and men of the old brigade will at once be found rallying to the standard of their country, with the expectation that one more campaign in Mexico will secure an honorable peace, and place Indiana where she deserves to stand, the first among the first.

J. H. LANE,

Indianapolis, August 31st, 1847.

P. S. For the present, all correspondents will please address me at this place.

Death of Gov. Dorr of Rhode Island.—The New Bedford Mercury announces that Tho's W. Dorr, died at Providence on the 21st ult. He has been in feeble health ever since his confinement, and his death was doubtless accelerated, if not caused, by the barbarous treatment he experienced from his Algerine oppressors.

Election Contested.—A friend writes us from Monroe county, that sufficient cause has peen found, and that Dr. Dobson has determined to contest the election of Mr. Dunn. We are glad to hear it! For though the whig party may have a majority in Congress, and the chance of success seems dark and dubious, RIGHT may triumph over MIGHT.—Vincennes Sun.

☞ We do not much approve this thing of contesting elections, and would not tolerate it, unless some very good and sufficient reasons could be adduced. If the democrats of the 6th district want Dr. Dobson to represent them, they ought to have elected him—they could if they would—and it would have looked better in them, than "crying over spilt milk" and contesting Mr. Dunn's seat. They are unworthy the honor of being represented in Congress by a democrat, and if we were Dr. Dobson we would not condescend to serve anyhow.

LATEST FROM THE RIO GRANDE.

Order of Gen. Taylor arresting the transportation of supplies.—Another massacre, twenty-four men killed. Attack of the trains; others expected.

The steamship Fanny, Capt. Scott, arrived yesterday, she is from Vera Cruz, via Tampico and the Brazos. From the two former ports her news is not as late as that brought by the Alabama; she brings the Matamoros Flag of the 18th inst.—later by three days than previous advices. We make from it the following extracts:

HALTING THE TRAINS.—By an arrival yesterday from Camargo, we are informed that an order had been received there from Gen. Taylor, directing a halt of the heavy wagon trains which were being got ready for Monterey, and which it was supposed were intended for the march upon San Luis. We cannot learn whether the dangers of the road, or a final resolve not to make any further advance with the army, has induced this order; but, from other circumstances, we judge the latter cause to have indicated it. We have no further news by this arrival from the army.

ANOTHER MASSACRE.—Intelligence was received on Saturday last, confirmed since by letters from Cerralvo to the 9th inst., that a scouting party of twenty-seven Texans, commanded by Capt. Baylor, ordered out by Col. Abbott, commandant at Cerralvo, to scour the country between that post and Monterey, had fallen in with a large body of Mexicans, and all been killed but three.

Our letters inform us that Captain Baylor left Cerralvo on the 6th instant, and, following out his instructions, visited several ranchos in the neighborhood of where the recent attacks had been made upon the trains. At two of these ranchos, goods and property captured from the trains were found secreted in the houses, and the guilt of a participation in these robberies being clearly proven against the Mexican residents, the property was retaken, the dwellings of the guilty burned, and several known desperate characters killed. With three prisoners which he had captured, Captain Baylor was returning to the main road, when he found himself surrounded by a large force of Mexicans, stated at 300—undoubtedly the same force which had attacked the trains previously. He was completely hemmed in, and the Mexicans charged upon this small band, killing many of them the first discharge of fire-arms. Three of the party effected their escape by crawling into the chapparal, and got into Cerralvo dreadfully lacerated with thorns. When they last saw Captain Baylor, he was wounded and unhorsed, but still fighting, and only three of his men were in their saddles.—They think it impossible that any more could have escaped, and do not believe that the Mexicans made any prisoners. Two days had elasped since they got back to Cerralvo, and nothing had been heard of any of the rest of the party.

In the dwelling of one of the Mexicans, made prisoner by Capt. Baylor, (so the men who escaped report,) were found two letters from the chief alcade of Cerralvo to Canales, informing him in whose possession he had placed certain goods captured from the trains, which he (Canales) had empowered him to dispose of in Cerralvo; and, also, giving him to understand, that if he stood in need of arms, horses, or men, he had but to make his wishes known, and they would be attended to.—These letters were in Capt. B.'s possession when attacked, and have been recovered by the Mexicans. In consequence of the report made to Col. Abbott, he has had the alcade and several other influential Mexicans arrested.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER CALEDONIA.

The steamer Caledonia arrived at Boston on the 2d inst, having left Liverpool on the 19th ultimo. She arrived at Halifax on the 31st ult., at 30 minutes past 7, and left again at 11 a. m., on the same day. She brings 137 passengers.

LIVERPOOL, August 19—11 A. M.

CORN MARKET.—Best western canal flour 26s. to 26s. 6d. per barrel; Richmond and Alexandria, 25s. to 25s. 6d.; Baltimore and Philadelphia, 24s to 25s; New Orleans and Ohio, 22s. to 23s; sour, 20s. to 21s. United States wheat, white and mixed, per 70 pounds, 7s. 9d. to 8s. 6d; red, 6s. 9d. to 7s. 6d. Indian Corn, 25s. to 30s. per quarter of 480 pounds. Corn meal, per barrel, 12s. to 13s. 6d. Oats per 45 pounds, 3s. to 3s. 4d.; barley, per 90 pounds, 3s. 9d. to 4s. 3d.; oat meal, per 240 pounds, 30s. to 32s.; rye, per 480 pounds, 30s. to 34s.

A serious downward tendency has taken place in the grain market since the departure of the steamer of the 4th inst., only occasionally arrested by broken weather; this, however, has failed to give a firm tone to the market, though at our market yesterday the above quotations were freely realized, and greater confidence was manifested among the buyers.

The certainty of a bountiful harvest at home, coupled with the continued large imports of foreign breadstuffs forced upon our market by necessities of holders, must exercise a still stronger depressing influence upon the trade; and it may be fairly inferred that the markets have not as yet retrograded to anything like the point to which they appear destined to fall.

In the London market a similar languor has taken place, which, accelerated by the alarm-failures that had taken place, almost precludes the possibility of reaction. Up to the closing of the corn market in London yesterday, a very limited quantity of English wheat had come to hand; and though there were scarcely any samples to offer, the demand was tolerably steady at average prices. There was rather more inquiry for foreign wheat of the best quality, but middling and inferior kinds were quite neglected. Foreign oats were dull at a reduction of 6d. per quarter.

PROVISION MARKET.—Prime mess beef, per tierce, new, 90s. a 92s. 6d.; ordinary 82s. a 88s.; mess, per barrel, 50s. a 56s.; ordinary 42s. a 48s.; pork, prime mess, per barrel, 65s. a 70s.; old, 51s. a 60s.; mess 65s. a 70s.; prime 48s. a 55s.; bacon, dried and smoked, old, 35s. a 40s. per cwt.; long middles, in salt, 45s. a 62s.

Indiana Institution for the Education of the Blind.—The trustees of this institution give notice that they will be ready to receive pupils, at Indianapolis, by the first of October, and invite the parents and guardians of blind children to make arrangements to send them at the opening of the school. The charge for boarding and tuition will be one hundred dollars per annum, payable in half-yearly instalments; but pupils whose parents or guardians are in such limited circumstances as not to be able to pay therefor, will receive the same free of charge, the trustees being satisfactorily informed of such inability, by a certificate from the clerk of the court, county treasurer, auditor, and other responsible persons. Pupils on entering the institution must in all cases go provided with an adequate supply of good and comfortable clothing, to be replenished by their friends when necessary. In applying for admission to the institution, parents, &c. are requested to state the name and age of the applicant; whether his sight is so far gone as to be unable to read; whether he is otherwise physically deformed; whether he is intelligent and susceptible of mental culture; his personal habits and moral character; and whether his friends are able to pay his expenses. Upon the answer to these questions depends the admission of the pupil. Letters to be addressed to James M. Ray, secretary of the board of trustees, or to Wm. Churchman, principal of the institution, Indianapolis.—New Albany Democrat.

☞ W. G. Ewing, the Indian trader, has issued an exceedingly venomous circular against his successful competitor for a seat in Congress from the 10th district. He asserts that Mr. Rockhill is 'a liar, and a contemptible demagogue, unworthy of the respect of honorable men;' that he is also an ignoramus, a tool of designing office hunters and office holders: a stupid demagogue, &c.

Well, admitting that all these imputations be true, they tell but little if anything in favor of the Indian Trader who has been beaten by such a man. If they are not true, but a mere ebullition of spite from a disappointed and defeated man, as we have no doubt they are, they show very conclusively that Ewing is in reality as base as he would like to have Mr. Rockhill appear to be. Poor Ewing!—State Sentinel.

NEW CALL FOR TROOPS.

In reference to the new call for troops, the Union of the 23th has the following:

The War Department has just called for five new regiments, exclusive of the regiment from Ohio, which is already reported to be raised, and is now in progress of being mustered into the public service, and will in a few days be en route for Vera Cruz.

The five regiments now called for are to be drawn from the following States: Two regiments from Kentucky, two from Tennessee, and one from Indiana.

The regiments from Kentucky are to rendezvous—one at Louisville, and the other at Smithland, at the mouth of the Cumberland river.

The regiments from Tennessee are to rendezvous—one at Nashville, and the other at Memphis.

The Indiana regiment will rendezvous at such convenient point on the river Ohio as the Governor of that State may designate.

These five regiments are expected to be rapidly raised, and promptly placed in the public service. Offers have already been made which induced the Executive to designate these States, and to make the necessary arrangements for embodying these troops without delay.

The Administration have determined to do their duty, whether for peace or for war.—They have offered the olive branch. As it may be declined, they have deemed it their duty to prepare for a vigorous prosecution of the war, and to fill up the ranks of the army to the proper standard, as they have been partially thinned by disease and death. Let the enemy be assured that they have to deal with an administration which will not shrink from the most energetic execution of its duties.

The presence of Paredes was not known here when the six regiments were called into service; but that movement may be productive of no serious consequences, yet it will only increase our vigilance. At all events, the President is determined to prepare for every contingency, and to vindicate the rights and honor of his country against every enemy—to meet war as well as to accept of peace.

We are happy to learn that, with a view to avoid the danger of contagion during the prevalence of yellow fever at New Orleans, ordeas have been given to have the means of transportation ready at Baton Rouge, Natchez, or some other healthy point, for all the volunteers who are ordered or to be ordered to Mexico, during the present state of the health of New Orleans, and who, in their progress to the seat of war, must pass down the Mississippi by that city.

The Ohio State Journal thus whistles Gen. Taylor down the wind. The whigs have made him act the fool, and now they will leave him in the lurch. He ought to have had more sense than to have suffered himself to be humbugged by them.

"It is understood that Gen. Taylor will make a visit to the States before long; and he will then in all probability avail himself of opportunities which his duties in the camp forbid him, of investigating questions pertaining to civil policy—and either give a full and frank declaration of the policy by which he would be guided; or else, in view to the interminable labyrinths of difficulty which surround questions of that sort, and the time, labor, and investigation requisite for forming an opinion on them which would be satisfactory to himself, renounce all pretension to civil promotion.

This latter, we are free to say, we should regard as the part of wisdom on his part. The qualifications for statesmanship are not to be acquired in a day, a month, or a year. They can only be attained through long years of patient application. We apprehend that Gen. Taylor has passed the period of life for entering upon that investigation. A good soldier and true patriot he has shown himself to be. It were better for him, in our view of the subject, to repose upon his laurels than to tarnish them by appearing in a character always difficult to sustain, and for which neither habit nor education have qualified him. We do not believe that he would be likely, under the circumstances, to add anything in the cabinet, to the honors he has won in the field.

SHIPWRECK AND LOSS OF LIFE.

The ship Mameluke, while lying to in a violent hurricane, at noon on the 15th inst., was struck by a tremendous squall, in lat. 48 N. long. 67 W., which careened her so far over that the cargo shifted, and brought her in an instant on her beam ends, so that the weather rail on her quarter deck was within a few feet of the water. The main and mizzen masts were instantly cut away, when the ship righted, but the cargo had burst open the hatches and was floating about, and the vessel was full of water. The starboard rail was submerged. At daylight on the 16th, but 22 of 64 on board were alive. Throughout that day and the next, the storm still raged, and the sea broke violently over the wreck. On the 17th, a vessel was seen, but the weather was too rough for her to approach the wreck. At daylight on the 18th, the vessel was seen bearing down; she proved to be the brig Belize, from Boston, bound to Port au Prince.—The seamen and surviving passengers were taken on board, and the course of the Belize changed for New York. Thirty-five of the steerage passengers, and seven of the crew of the Mameluke, were washed overboard. The Mameluke was on her first voyage, with a full cargo of flour and provisions. Cargo fully insured—vessel partially so.

BREAD VERSUS BULLETS.—The Americans having nobly supplied food for the Irish, we shall look at their flag with increased respect. Their stripes shall be to us significant of a gridiron, and their stars of sugared buns.—Glad are we to find that the American subscriptions have been so nobly acknowledged in the House of Commons. The thanks for bread will go far to keep bullets out of fashion. The Indian Meal Book is, to our mind, a much more delightful volume than any History of the American War; and the directions therein written for the composition of hominy cakes and slap jacks far better than any talk of red-coat tactics. Bombs have had their day; let us henceforth try buns; and wherever America has battered our ships, let her for all time to come batter our frying-pans. To paraphrase the piemen, 'Brown-johnny cakes is in—Congreve rockets is out."—Punch.

FROM THE NEW YORK CORRESPONDENT OF THE UNION.

New York, Aug. 26, 1847.

The Tribune and Courier are deep in a wrangle as to the course to be pursued by the 'whig majority' in the House of Representatives—the Tribune insisting that the administration should be confined to a strictly defensive war; and the Courier, on the other hand, (with the Albany Evening Journal,) maintaining that it is the duty of 'the whig majority' to give the Executive all the supplies in men and money which he might ask to carry on the war. This is very well, even now—better late than never. But what a commentary it furnishes on the unprincipled and abandoned character of whig party tactics! The very policy which, while in a minority, and in opposition, they clamored for in season and out of season, they are ready to repudiate the moment they think themselves within reach of power and its responsibilities. The Tribune has at least the merit of consistency and apparent attachment to principle. The Courier and its allies but exhibit the utter and unpatriotic profligacy of "whig" partisans, who, a little while ago, for no better object than "to embarrass the administration," were urging with might and main a national policy, which now they are branding as cowardly, traitorous, and everything vile.

Some late financial arrangement of the Secretary of the Treasury, for the purpose of placing $2,000,000 in specie in New Orleans, for the purposes of the war, having been assailed by one or two of the whig journals, the Tribune—of all others—this morning comes to the rescue, and thinks "it a good arrangement, and one for which there is no room for fault-finding; for by it the coin is kept where it belongs, and is useful, and is received and distributed in New Orleans, where it is idle." Mr. Walker's doings must be particularly unexceptionable, when they find a volunteer defends in the Tribune.

Another Horse Thief.—Officer EVAN EWAN, arrested on Wednesday, a man named West charged with stealing a horse from Mr. Lawrence, of Dark county O. The following are the circumstances: Mr Lawrence, some time since on going to the stable, found his horse gone, with the saddle and bridle, and at the bars, where probably the thief had mounted the animal, he found a pocket book containing a one dollar bill, and a paper on which was written the names of an organized gang of horse thieves, of St. Louis, Louisville and Cincinnati, which had, no doubt, been dropped accidentally. Mr. Lawrence came to this place in search of his horse and the thief, and accidentally met West in the street. Not, in the slightest degree, suspecting him, he cordially shook hands, &c.; but West, "let himself out," as being guilty, he suspected the object of Mr. L.'s visit, and said, "O, Mr. Lawrence, I have purchased a horse—a first rate match for yours—and I would like to sell him to you." Mr. L. expressed a desire to look at the animal, and the two walked to the stable. What was Mr. L's surprise when he discovered that the scoundrel wanted to sell him his own horse! Lawrence had West immediately arrested. He underwent examination before M. P. Taylor, Esq., and was handed over to the authorities of Dark county.

Mr. L. said that West was the last man he would have suspected of the theft, as he was an intimate acquaintance, and of a reputable and very wealthy family. West denied any knowledge of the pocket-book. This is the most singular case yet recorded.—Cincinnati Com.

IMPORTANT MOVE IN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE CANADAS.—A document emanating from the office of the Secretary of the English Colonies, has lately come to light. It is dated as far back as December last, and appears in a late number of the Montreal Herald. The English Secretary of State indicates in this document a design to incorporate the whole of the British North American Colonies, as an ultimate measure; in the meantime taking the first steps to that consummation by giving the several governments a common custom house and a common post office. The Montreal Herald, viewing the despatch favorably, adds, that it is plain that the great railway from Halifax to Toronto forms a portion of the plan which the Secretary contemplates.

According to previous notice, on last Monday, the contract for the construction of a Lock and Dam at the Grand Rapids was taken. Messrs. SAM'L. and ISAAC GULBERTSON, of Pennsylvania, got the contract, upon a bid of $50,820; the Company furnish the iron necessary for construction, which, it is thought, will cost $5,000 or $6,000.

The contract has been taken at about $12,000 less than was anticipated by the friends of the improvement—as the estimate of MR. LATHROP—being a safe one—placed the cost of construction at $70,000. Hence there is a surplus of about $20,000 of the stock subcribed in the hands of the company, which may be applied to the clearing out of the snags or other minor purposes of navigation.—Vincennes Sun.

Irish Relief.—The editor of the American Almanac wishes to place in the next number, a list of contributions for the relief of Ireland. Those who have had charge of the contributions, at various places, are desired to write the particulaas to Francis Bowen, Boston Mass.

We are informed that the notorious Maria Monk is now an inmate of the Ssate Prison, at Sing Sing, having been sent thither on a conviction for grand larceny.—Brooklyn Advertiser.

Who are quacks. The administrator of calomel?—the professor of the Water Cure?—the disciple of the great Hahnemann who administers his minute doses, and wonders at the nonbelief of the million?—the Steam doctor?—the Botanical doctor?—the mesmerizer?—and the ten thousand inventors of Patent curealls? which is THE one true system?—we pause for a reply. Our Courts of Justice show the blistering, bleeding, calomel faculty often arraigned for manslaughter; but like a band of brothers they swear each other through thick and thin. The Water cure has men like Sir E. L. Bulwer to prove its powerful medicinal agency, over all other remedies. Then steps forth a host of believers in Homœopathy the ONLY true system, say they.—oh no, it is steam only, says a most respectable group, which you can rely upon. It cured us when all else failed:—hold! says another party, botanical treatment has proved itself the only safe and reliable means of cure. we have been through all your systems and they all failed—botanical treatment cured us: —A loud cry was heard as from millions of voices—Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture—the Great American Remedy, after all other trials in all other medicines proved futile, saved our lives. So we go reader, and the agents of this medicine in this place will give you a pamphlet, look into it. Dr. G. C. Vaughn's Lithontriptic sells at a rate of many thousands per year.

COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE SENTINEL,
Fort Wayne, September 11, 1847.

The competition among Wheat buyers keeps up the price here beyond what the eastern markets would seem to justify. Buyers would like to reduce it to 75c, but sellers stick to 80c, and the price has fluctuated between the two, during the week. At the time of writing the Eighties have it; but it is quite probable before this reaches our readers the Seventy-fives may have the control.

Several hundred bushels of cranberries have been shipped this week. They have been bought at 37 to 50 cents per bushel. The crop is very large and fine this year, and hundreds of persons are gathering them, although not near ripe. It is to be regretted that people will persist in gathering this rich fruit before it is fit for use. If they could only have patience to let the cranberries get ripe they would sell for double the price at present obtained.

NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL.—DR. OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE.—The following extract is from the farmers' and emigrant's Hand Book, a valuable work of about 500 pages, recently published by Messrs. Appleton and Co., New York. In chapter 8, page 235, the author speaking of Fever and Ague, remarks:

"There is a most valuable medicine sold in most of the Western cities, which we can conscientiously recommend for Fever and Ague, and ther bilious diseases; it is the INDIA CHOLAGOGUE, which is prepared by Dr. Osgood of New York, who has made the bilious disorders of the West his special study. We are no friend to those medicines usually called patent, but we have had ample opportunities of knowing the invaluable effects of the Cholagogue in bilious cases."

The speedy and permanent relief afforded by the Cholagogue, arises from its prompt and healthy action upon the blood, cleansing it from bile and restoring it to purity. Thus striking at the root—its tendency is not simply to suspend disease, but to remove the cause, on which it depends. It is equally adapted to all ages and all conditions of the system. 4

WELCH & DELAVAN'S

GREAT NATIONAL CIRCUS

The only perfect managel establishment in the United States, comprising upwards of

TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY MEN AND HORSES!

ADMITTANCE ONLY 25 CENTS.

Will be exhibited at FORT WAYNE, on Saturday, the 18th day of September.

This grand Equestrian Cavalcade will be preceded by the most celebrated BRASS BAND, in an elegant and costly Chariot drawn by twelve beautiful cream-colored Horses, the truly imposing entrance of this noble and magnificent processional cavalcade The surpassing beauty of the thorough-bred horses, the gorgeously decorated carriages, near thirty in number; the designs and gildings of which are by the most distinguished artists, compels a comparison that places this establishment at the head of every public exhibition In fact a larger fortune has been expended in the scenes and acts presented by the superior artists picked and chosen from a hundred stars, in order to render this the first and most superior Equestrian Company in this or any other country in the world

Among this extensive and numerous Company, is the celebrated and far famed

Mr. LEVI J. NORTH, the Great Equestrian Hero, who has far surpassed the most celebrated rivals in this or any other country, and has borne the palm of superiority before the Royal Families of England and France, and has returned covered with Medals of thd highest honor and applause.

Mr. J. J. NATHANS, the most celebrated two to four and six horse rider, will appear in many of his admirable and astonishing acts of balancing his pupils, forming many most beautiful scenes.

The great unrivalled clown, JOHN MAY, the brightest star in this country, and decidedly the best in his profession.

Mrs. WOODS, the graceful alemande rider, and leader of the Equestrian Cavalcade.

Mr. E. WOODS, the grand representative of the Red Man of the Forest.

JOHN GLENROY, the great bare backed horse rider, is a youth of wonderful skill and immense equilibrium, performing unheard of feats without saddle or bridle; he makes tremendous leaps through balloons and over silken raised barriers, as numerous as can be contained in the circumference of the ring. His style is of the first class of his peculiar school; his sommersets, or throwing himself head over heels, (while his courser is at the greatest speed) and alighting firmly upon his horse's back, is a proof of the eminence that may be attained by unceasing practice and undaunted resolution. This young man, who is a pupil of Mr. Cadwallader, may be considered as one of the noblest features of the Company.

FRANK PASTOR will appear in a touching infantile and admirable act on a single horse.

F. BROWER, N. JAMESON and J. STICKNEY, the great representatives of the Ethiopian character.

J. BANKER and G. DUNBAR, and a host of other talented performers.

lexander Tolerton

German and English Botanic Physician and Surgeon, of Fort Wayne, Ind.,

EEMS it proper to inform the public that he is alive and hearty and has not left the ngiss,"--neither does he intend to do so, s upon professional business--and then he e quickly back to his office, in attendance those who may require his services. He practices medicine exclusively upon Bot- principles, and with unparalleled success, proved by numerous certificates from the ted who had been given up as incura- but now restored to perfect he lth and ngth. It is now about two years since he blished himself in this city, during which he has prescribed and administered medi- to thirty-eight hundred and eighty-six pa- s from the States of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio Michigan, for which very liberal patronage eturns his heartfelt thanks; and from pres- appearances he feels great confidence that will still be favored with the privilege of ad- istering "aid and comfort" to the afflicted, withstanding the prejudice that has been ght to be raised against him by some, and the opposition and bitter hostility manifes- against him by a portion of the Medical ession.

octor Tolerton has made he nature and tment of disease the study of his life, and latters himself that he is able to treat with ce-s in all cases where success is yet attain- , consumption, asthma, bronchitis, inflama- of the lungs, liver, stomach, bowels, and neys; pleurisy, fever and ague, chill fever, nb ague, (and no mistake,) remittant, typhus let, puerperal, inflamatory, and hectic fe- s; all billious diseases, epilepsy or falling kness, apoplexy, giddiness, melancholy, hys- ia, hypocondria, palsy, st. vitus dance, dys- sia, water brash, cholera morbus, and infan- n; bowel complaints of children, heartburn, ker, vomiting, dysentery, diarhœa, cholic, cer, scrofula, ulcers, mercurial diseases, fe- sores, white swellings, night mare, palpi- ion of the heart, piles, jaundice, scurvy, gra- urinary and secret di-eases, acute and onic rheumatism, rickets, worms, dropsies, nal affections, inflamation of the brain, par- sis, debility and irritability of the nervous tem, pain in the breast and side, coughs and ds, internal weakness and falling of the nb, and all the chronic diseases peculior to ales in their various relations of life. These eases will be treated and cured upon the et botanic vegetable system of practice, hout resorting, in any case, to the use of t "Poison" called Calomel, or any other rcurial preparation. It would be well for s that are afflicted with any of the above eases, to send for Dr. Tolerton, or give him all, for he is fully persuaded it will be for ir interest to do so. At the very worst it l do them no harm--his treatment is inno- t and harmless, and that is more than can be l of the treatment of some that could be na- d.

le would also observe that it would be well those afflicted with diseases of the EYES, to forget him, for his success in the treat- nt of this delicate member is truly astonish

Many have been restored by him, whose es had been given up as hopeless by the cel- ated oculist of this city, (as represented by e of the patients.) Dr. Tolerton would em- ce this opportunity to say to his friends, and whom it may concern, that the report, put irculation by some of his medical FRIENDS, his city, to the effect that he never went ough a regular course of medical instruction he Medical College of Cincinnati, is wholly unded. Seventeen years ago he obtained a loma from the first Medical District of Ohio; rtificate from the professors of the Medical itute, of his qualifications as a Physician; a certificate of Membership of the Medical Ph losophical Society of Cincinnati, (all ch are to be seen by any one at his office) has been engaged in the practice of medi- and surgery in all its branches, from that e to the present. He is in possession of s erior apparatus for reducing fractures, and at all times be in readiness to attend to al s in that department of his profession.

HERE we are again at the old Stand, the extreme Eastern store, on Columbia street (North side) with more and cheaper GOODS than we ever offered in this market. It has been said by some of our friends, that we have more Goods than we can sell, but they do not understand how exceedingly low we design selling them, we are determined to sell at prices that will compete with any in this market, and that too without standing in the street to hail every person to buy our Goods. It has been a matter of speculation with men engaged in the Mercantile business, whether it is possible to sell goods in an equitable manner or not, or in other words, whether it is possible to sustain A One Price Store, where all could buy goods withourt fear of paying an Extra Price to make up for the loss on a previous sale. The subscribers wish to say to the public that they have been engaged for the las eighteen months in endeavoring to solve the above question and it is with great satisfaction that we now promulgate the fact that the plan of selling goods at a small advance and uniform price works well, we take this method of informing our customers that we feel gratified for the patronage heretofore so generously bestowed and the public generally, that we have a full and complete stock of

Cash for 20,000 Bushels
OF WHEAT,
At the Empire Mills.

WE are prepared to pay CASH and the HIGHEST PRICE for 20,000 bushels of good merchantable Wheat.

Farmers and Teamsters will save themselves much trouble and expense by driving directly up to the STONE MILLS and unloading; they will always get the highest price, and avoid the annoyance of being pestered by the barkers and whipper snappers from the Stores, who now infest our streets and are such a bore to all who bring wheat to our market. We are not much given to boasting; but as some of our neighbors are talking of wanting 10,000 bushels of wheat, we would inform wheat raisers that we can take in 20,000; as our Mill, besides being the best, is the biggest, the highest, and the strongest in the country. We have a convenient WAGON-YARD and STABLE, for teams coming to the Mill, and a HOUSE for the Teamsters; we always furnish feed for the horses, and occasionally throw in Supper and Breakfast for their drivers. This is nothing new with us--we have always thought it our duty to do so, and should not now mention it if our neighbors had not set the example.

We keep constantly on hand FLOUR OF THE BEST QUALITY and all kinds of Mill Stuff; and promptly grind every thing in the shape of Custom Work--always excepting White Oak Tan Bark, or the "face of the Poor."

The Parlor Magazine.

J. T. HEADLEY, EDITOR.

THIS Magazine, formerly under the care of D. Mead, commences its Fourth Volume under the editorship of J. T. Headley, author of "Napoleon and his Marshalls," "Washington and his Generals," "Letters from Italy," &c. &c. We hazard nothing in saying that this Magazine is destined to fill a large place in public estimation; that it will not only maintain its present enviable reputation, but earn to itself a far higher popularity, and become the companion of many a circle to which it is now a stranger, gladening by its presence, while it exerts an influence pure, elevating and healthful. The editor will bend his energies to make this THE MOST POPULAR MAGAZINE of the day, and while availing himself of assistance from the best writers, he will draw freely from his own exhaustable store.

It will continue to maintain its high moral tone, and nothing will be admitted into its columns which will minister to the corrupt passions and tendencies of youth, or which the author "dying would wish to blot."

The design is to offer the public a Magazine containing all the attraction and interest of the lighter periodicals, while it moves in a different path, and is not xposed to the same objections.

It is issued montnly, commencing with May containing 32 pages of original matter, printed on fine paper, in handsome covers, with a splendid steel engraving, and colored flower in each number, with occasional music and is got up in every respect in the best style of the art, making a yearly volume of 384 pages, full of choice illustrations, and forming an elegant ornament to the parlor table, or a rich and valuable present to a friend.

Back numbers and volumes always on hand.

Price only $2 per year, if in advance. 3 copies for $5. 8 copies for $12.

The Press and the public are daily awarding us the very highest testimonials of the editorial ability of our Magazine, and the beauty and taste with which it is embellished, placing it in the very first rank in every respect, among the thousands of which we select the following:

"Mr. Headley's lively and versatile pen is admirably fitted to give a charm to a work like this."--New York Evangelist.

"Under the editorial charge of J. T. Headley, the most popular writer of the age, we predict a still stronger interest will be taken in this already well known and valuable Magazine.--The name of Headley lone is a sure guaranty of success."--Farmer and Mechanic.

"The new editor has infused that intense and absorbing interest into its pages for which his writings are remarkable. The work has gained in the power which enchains the sympathies and rivets the attention, without losing anything of its former chaste and elevated morals and style."--Windham Co. Democrat.

"We wish this Magazine much success under its present guardianship."--Advocate and Journal.

"The editor is well known as one of the most brilliant writers of the day."--American Agriculturist.

"Their motto is to mingle the beautiful with the good."--N. E. Review

"Mr Headley contributes to the present May number liberally in his usual pleasing style."--N. Y. Tribune.

"His talents will add greatly to the interest of the publication, and have great influence in extending its circulation"--Christian Intelligencer

"This very neat monthly is gaining favor, refining and softening the roughness of life, and blessing the family where it alights, 'Esto perpetua'"--Massachusetts Eagle.

"This is unquestionably the best Magazine of its kind in the country."--Nantucket Enquirer.

"Beautiful as it is valuable."--Lit. Observer.

Smith's Tonic Syrup.

FOR THE CURE OF AGUE AND FEVER OR CHILLS AND FEVER. This remedy has now been extensively used throughout the west and south-west for the last seven years and within that period has permanently cured over 200,000 cases, in all its various forms, many of which had been from one to three years standing, and had resisted all the usual remedies known in this country, and in no case did this medicine fail where the directions were followed properly. Such is its invariable success that a large number of respectable practitioners of medicine, in various parts of the country use and prescribe it in preference to Quinine and all other remedies.

The public are assured that it is not only certain in its effects as a tonic, but being composed entirely of vegetable medicines, is perfectly innocent in any cases or circumstances, and may be given to females, infants, and all persons of debilitated and delicate constitutions without the least fear whatever of any unpleasant effect.

This medicine is composed of articles of the primest and purest quality, and is always made by the proprietor in person, after the established forms of pharmacy, (which cannot be said of the various Tonics now flooding the western and south-western country,) and in this respect alone is rendered greatly superior to the remedies usually prepared and sold in this country.

By its sapient and powerful diaphoretic properties added to its Tonic qualities, it is rendered eminently superior to Quinine and other remedies, as a general and popular Tonic in all cases whatever where Tonics are proper to be administered. The proprietor would therefore respectfully invite practitioners and the public generally to give it a fair trial, and they will then be convinced of its great superiority over all other remedies now in use for the purposes specified.

For the satisfaction of those not acquainted with its valuable curative powers, the following letters and certificates are given from the many in his possession:

We, the undersigned, do hereby cheerfully certify, that we have sold largely Dr. Smith's Tonic Syrup in our neighborhood, and in very many cases have seen and known its use among our customers, and from what we have seen and known of its use, do, without hesitation recommend it to our friends and the public generally, as the most speedy, permanent and innocent remedy that we have ever seen or heard of in the cure of Ague and Fever or Chills and Fever, and we do believe that it will in no case fail to cure if the directions are properly followed.

GREAT AMERICAN REMEDY

DR. G. C. VAUGHN'S ADVERTISEMENT for 1847.—THE GREAT AMERICAN REMEDY—Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture.—This valuable Panacea is now being introduced into Europe, the East and West Indies, South America and all other parts of the globe, where disease exists in any form. The United States and the Canadas have for the past three years severely tested the virtues which the proprietor, upon the introduction of this medicine, hesitated not to say it possessed. In introducing this GREAT VEGETABLE REMEDY, the most startling promises were made, on the part of the medicine—so novel was the theory—the principles upon which the cures were to be effected, that people threw up their hands and cried, what next! Even credulity, startled with surprise, and the so called "Faculty" made themselves merry over the "new humbug." But mark the result—the three years have passed away—public opinion, the voice of millions, and more observing individuals, have stamped this REMEDY the most singular, wonderful, incomprehensible, and miraculous curative power ever produced. The ONE GREAT DISEASE, which the proprietor of this medicine had the presumption to say existed, and that ALL various diseases were but secondary, has now millions of believers.—They must believe, for they have witnessed the affect of this restorative. It has conquered ALL cases, by simply conquering the ONE. The "Old School" now open their eyes. Their old dogmas, like the morning mist, fly before the light of truth, and common sense now seeks a road to health its own way, instead of closing its eyes, and being led. The truth of the principle upon which this article cures is established, and the statement is again boldly, most emphatically, most decidedly reiterated: This medicine will drive from the body every disease which has a name—every disorganization of the system which can exist. If bone and muscle remain, this medicine will restore to a perfect state. The old calomel, bleeding, blistering system is about to fall. The proof daily presenting itself of the truth of our theory, is a prop out of the old structure, which will soon tumble to the ground, a shapeless mass of ignorance and deception.

Invalids resort at once to this medicine. It is a strictly vegetable remedy, the product of our own soil—a compound of twenty two ingredients. Each root has its particular part of the system to act upon, and this action is always produced—its effect upon the whole system is immediately apparent. Testimony of the highest character is daily coming to the proprietor full of truth, and you will always see names, places and dates. Not a particle of false evidence is offered on the part of this great curative. The most careful perusal of the pamphlet is desired. It gives the character of all the secondary complaints which prevails, and which have been cured by this article. Evidences of cures in some of the most dreadful cases of lingering complaints which it has been the fortune of any medicine to cope with, is found—cases which have been left to die. Hundreds in every large city of our Union and the Canadas have to thank this article for their lives, and so do they, as letters in the possession of the proprietor will show.

This great medicine will cure DROPSY, in every stage; Gravel, and all kinds of difficulty in the urinary organs; complaints of the kidneys—weakness of the back; female irregularities immediately checked, and a healthy tone given to the system. Let every female at once resort to this safe medicine, and use no other. Diseased liver, indigestion, billious complaints, dyspepsia instantly relieved; rheumatism, gout, &c., produced by inaction of the bland, will always find relief; inflamed lungs, cough, even consumption, unless the patients and their medical advisers were deceived, has been cured by this medicine; scrofula, and all eruptive diseases, piles, erysipelas, Inflammation of the eyes, palpitation at the heart, sick headache, jaundice, fever and ague—the whole catalogue might be named—seek this remedy; buy no other.

Put up in 30 oz. bottles, at $2; 12 oz. bottles, $1 each.

Be careful that you are not imposed upon.—Each bottle has the words "Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture" blown upon the glass—the written signature of "G. C. Vaughn" on the directions, and G. C. Vaughn, Buffalo, stamped on the cork. None others are genuine.

Prepared by Dr. G. C. Vaughn, and sold at the principal agency, 207 Main street, Buffalo, at wholesale and retail, to whom all communications must come post paid.

Mackenzie's Tonic Ferbrifuge.

Its Infallible Health Restoring Properties fully Established.

It is now known as the All-Powerful

Fever and Ague Destroyer

IN PRESENTING this well established and powerful sanative Medicine to the people of Indiana and the citizens generally of the south western States, the proprietors feel full confidence that it will act as successfully in the districts where it is now produced, as in the Ague and Fever visited regions of Indiana, Illinois and Ohio, Michigan, and Western Pennsylvania and New York. In the States above mentioned, its universal celebrity as a certain, prompt and permanent is generally conceded; and it is resorted to by all thus afflicted, in preference to all other preparations claming to this disease.

Volumes of irrefragible testimony might accompany this notice; but the proprietor believes that the true method of apprising the afflicted of the perfectly curative properties of the Tonic Ferbrifuge, is the trial of its miraculous power over

Fever and ague.

So far the proprietor has found it only necessary to test its practical and health restoring blessings in the communities where it has been introduced. In the proud testimonials so elicited, the worth of the Ferbrifuge is made manifest; and it is therefore confidently sent upon its healing errand into the Valleys of the Wabash and Maumee. He sends it there as a Medicine, now regarded in the Northern and Western States as a cure whose progress is undimmed, and

Without a Solitary Failure.

In short, sustained wherever tested, (and the evidences can be furnished, if there any inclined to be skeptical,) as

Ague Breaking, Fever Removing and Health Renewing.

As such, Mackenzie's Tonic Ferbrifuge is now offered to the Ague diseased of Indiana, and the States adjoining, and to those emigrants and travellers who may be attacked by the Ague and Fever away from their homes and families. It is submitted as an infallible remedy for the autic local diseases attendant upon our soil, and the miasmatic exhalations arising therefrom.

By properly adhering to the directions accompanying it, or giving head to the warnings that the system invariably gives in advance of malady, the constitution may not only be rescued from its thraldom to the ravager, but even its stealthiest approaches frustrated before allowed a foothold.

To the prudent, what has been stated above will answer as well as if a volume of verbiage were placed before them. To all those who resist this invitation to try a remedy that has always succeeded whenever applied, the only words that can be said, are—

The wise man prospers on the fool's downfall,
'Tis wisdom's part to break disease's thrall.

For the Sentinel.

TO THE ABSENTEE.

Art thou waking or sleeping, my brother,
Or art thou gazing on yon silver light,
Dost thou yet think of me or some other,
When thou watchest the fair Queen of night?

Oh, think on the eyes which have vanished,
When we watched the soft twilight together,
Then you said that tho' far I were banished,
Thy fond love should stay with me forever.

I have watched the pale moon, my dear brother,
Shining forth, from the Dome of the sky,
And have fancied thy spirit, my brother,
Smiled on her, who was gazing on high.

The Fort Wayne Sentinel.

Fort Wayne, Sept. 6, 1847.

THO'S. TIGAR, Esq., Sir:—Allow me to present my compliments through your columns, to A. J. Bair Esq., of the Kosciusko Republican. I this morning had the pleasure of reading an article in that paper of last week in relation to the Fathers of Temperance.—Mr. Bair seems to think the article in the Times and Press of Aug. 23 in reply to Defrees' remarks in relation to that society, rather too intemperate for the President of a temperance society to make, and has, as I think very ungenerously selected all the hard words in the article, and combined them so as to make it appear pretty strong indeed. Now if the Republican Editor had published the whole letter the people could have judged for themselves of its merits, and would no doubt have given it a proper consideration. As a member of that order, I feel it my duty to uphold it, believing it to be one of the best things for true temperance ever started, and I have no objection to the whole Press of the country expressing its opinion of it—yet when they know no harm of it, perhaps it might be as well if they would say as little against it as possible. Mr. Bair only speaks of the language used by the President, and says nothing really against the Order itself—but we uphold our president and think him fully justifiable in using any language he pleases towards the author of the article in the Journal—and because good luck placed him in a position to meet Mr. Defrees with his own weapons, he should not be condemned for using the Times and Press, to express his public and our private opinion of that individual.

No man should apply the term 'Drunken Loafer,' to any man, or set of men, unless he is prepared to stand up to it—and I think our president, is perfectly able take care of himself. A. BACHELOR.

From the Union.

THE DEATH OF SILAS WRIGHT.

The sudden death of this illustrious statesman will be felt as a great and lamentable event throughout the length and breadth of our land. He died of apoplexy, at his residence in Canton, New York, on the 27th instant.—He has been struck down without warning, in the splendid maturity of his great faculties, and in the midst of bright and almost boundless prospects of future usefulness and renown. In his death the democracy of our nation will mourn the loss of a statesman whose public and private life and character were alike the ornament and the honor of the political system out of which they grew.

To those—and there are many such—who hold that in a free government like ours, a devotion to public affairs and to political life as they are at present managed among us, is unfavorable to the development of the best and manliest qualities of character—to those who believe, in a republic, a long and successful political career must harden the heart against the better and kinder sympathies of our nature, and engender an ambition at once unscrupulous, overweening, and selfish—to those who tell us how hard it is for the eminent politician to keep his lips pure from guile, his heart free from stormy passions, and his hands unstained by practices of corruption—to those who assure us that the favor of the people must, under a democratic government, be won by fawning, and that the charms of high station are an overmatch for the strength even of the most steadfast integrity;—to all such objectors against the working of our free institutions upon the characters of our public men, the life and the death of Silas Wright furnish a refutation at once conclusive and sublime.—From his boyhood he learned to be a statesman. His earliest impulses urged him to don the bright harness of democratic principles, and to go forth to battle in the thick of the fight for the Popular Cause. He passed thro' almost every form of official life. In the politics of his town, of his county, of his state, and of his country, he bore in quick succession a most leading and conspicuous part. In places of highest administrative power, in situations of subordinate ministerial trust and duty, in the silent labors of the committee room, and in the halls of senatorial eloquence and action—in every scene where mind is strained to its severest tension, and character put to its sternest ordeal—there, always foremost among the champions of popular rights, always holding fast to his principles as to his honor and religion—fearless to meet any crisis, prompt to assume any rightful responsibility—firm, calm, watchful, laborious, incorruptible—Silas Wright, himself a poor man and the poor man's friend, builded up the fair and stately fabric of his fame on the fast foundations of intellect and integrity.

And when the great crisis of his public career came at last, and his grateful country tendered to him, in quick succession, her highest judicial and executive stations, faithful to a scrupulous sensitiveness of honor, he rose superior even to the legitimate ambition of a great statesman, calmly put aside the most glittering rewards of public life and without impatience, or emotion, or effort, went back to his humble farm-house and his little farm, to till the earth with his own hands, and to earn his daily bread in the sweat of his brow!

All who knew Mr. Wright agree that his powers of mind were of the highest order.—Yet he persuaded and prevailed as much by the noble moderation of his spirit as by the vigor and comprehensiveness of his understanding. He carried into public affairs the best characteristics of private life. In the conflict of parties and of principles in the Senate chamber, always doing his duty with stern and scrupulous fidelity, he provoked no man to anger. In the memorable session of the twenty-seventh Congress he fought with matchless power the great battle of the people against privilege, and came out of the contest without having made an enemy.

Though, in the death of Mr. Wright, the democracy of the country must feel that it has lost one of its most powerful champions, yet the loss of his influence upon the character of politics, and of political aspirants among us, will be yet more severely felt. One of the brightest examples of political virtue no longer shines before men's eyes. It can be seen now only in the diminishing glass of remembrance. Other men may, perhaps, be found among us to serve as faithfully, and to plead as eloquently, the cause of the people, as did he whom we have lost. But it will be long before a similar combination of circumstances shall unite with the most splendid powers of intellect, the highest elements of public character, to form a career at once so instructive, so impressive, and so encouraging as that which has now closed in the grave of Silas Wright.

Gifted with talents of the highest order—blessed with a heart of the finest mould—with principles of the true democratic stamp, adapted to the free people among whom his lot was cast; and, with manners destitute of all affectation, of all the airs and arrogance of office, but recommended by all the simplicity and all the amiableness which distinguished those of Jefferson, of Madison, of Marshall—Silas Wright was the man to earn the respect and affections of his countrymen. He was truly the man of the people. Already many of his admiring countrymen were pointing him out, and holding him up for the highest office in the republic. But death has cut him off from all the splendor and all the interests of this world.—Yet, we must repeat, amid all his high qualities, there was one which pre-eminently deserves our notice and respect. Considering his pretensions and his qualifications, his distinguished abilities, and his numerous services, he was the last to claim, and the first to decline the offices which were almost showered upon him. At almost one and the same time three brilliant honors were tendered to his acceptance. He was urged to accept the governorship of New York. The President of the United States offered him a seat upon the bench of the Supreme Court, that noble object of almost the highest ambition. The democracy of the strongest representative body in the country offered him the honors of the Vice Presidency. Mr. Wright declined them all—and among them, the seat upon the Supreme Court bench, which he would have preferred to all the rest; and never can we forget the high-minded and noble letter which he addressed on that subject to one of our friends, one of the judges of the Supreme Court. We never were more impressed with reverence for any man, than on seeing that production, and weighing the reasons which prompted him to decline it. But he did decline it. But his desire to carry the State of New York for the democratic ticket for the presidency and vice presidency caused him at last to yield to his friends. No man could have submitted with better grace, and no man could have more loyally shown his devotion to his country and to his party.

NATIONAL CONVENTION.—Several of the Democratic papers are discussing the propriety of holding a National Convention for the nomination of candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency as though it were a matter for discussion at all. We regard it as one of the established usages of the party, and on no account to be departed from, if we would preserve the organization of the party and secure its success, and the only alternative we can see, would be the repetition of the disgraceful scenes, the bargain and intrigue of the canvass of '24. The 9th and 10th districts in this state have already acted in the premises, appointed their delegates, and will be on hand, at the drop of the hat.—If other districts in the state were too intent upon the spoils to attend to this matter in their Congressional Conventions, it is time they were moving. The great west has interests at stake which must not be neglected.—Goshen Democrat.

From the Bedford Sun, Aug 21.

COLORS OF THE SECOND INDIANA REGIMENT.

In the Washington Union of the 11th inst., is a communication from the pen of the Hon. Amos Lane, of this State, concerning the conduct of the Indiana troops on the battle-field, and the colors of the two Regiments. It is in reply to certain slanderous assertions made by one of the returned prisoners of Majors Gaines and Borland's party in Mexico; and is well worthy the pen of an Indianian.

But the writer has unintentionally fallen into an error concerning the flag of the second Regiment, which we deem it our duty to correct, in justice to those who so gallantly preserved it when about to fall into the hands of the enemy. After speaking very properly of the retreat of the Regiment he observes:

"Most of them (the men) rallied and fought like veterans; a few did not, but went like many others to the ranch. In this retreat the color bearer being wounded, fell, and with him the flag of the regiment. Major Dix of the paymaster's department, coming up at the moment, recovered these colors and handed them to Lieut. Kunkle of the same Regiment who bore them most gallantly the balance of the day. These colors were brought home with the Regiment, and are now in the hands of Captain Sanderson of New Albany, Indiana."

We have been definitely informed of the whole history of this flag, by many who fought under its 'stars and stripes,' and who were with it from the beginning to the end of the campaign. The following statement condensed from a full account of it furnished us by request by one of the "Lawrence Greys," may be relied on as correct.

"The flag was made and presented to the "Spencer Greys," by the patriotic ladies of New Albany, Ia., before the Regiment was organized; after it was organized, this same flag was constituted the Regimental colors. and a sergeant and two corporals were detailed to bear and protect it; "this," in the language of our correspondent "they did most gallantly, until in the heroic conflict at Buena Vista, the bearer received a severe wound in the arm, which disabled him. He was afterwards killed. Consequently the colors fell to the ground, and lay until taken up by E. W. Moberly, a private in company F (the 'Lawrence Greys')—his clothing shows that he did it at no small risk. Moberly handed the flag to Lieut. Col. Hadden. Hadden handed it to Major Dix, and Major Dix to Lieut. Kunkle of the "Spencer Greys." who bore it in triumph the remainder of the day, and returned it unsullied by the hand of the enemy to the United States. It is now in New Albany, Indiana."

"Thus it seems that it was not Major Dix, but a brave soldier in the ranks, who periled his life to save the flag, under which, most of the Regiment afterwards "rallied and fought like veterans."

The fact, as we understand it is, that the bearer was left in the rear, in the retreat, and when wounded the colors fell from his hands; young Moberly, soon after, casting a glance behind him, saw them lying on the ground, and immediately returned in the face of the advancing enemy, to where they lay, and when the Mexicans were within a few paces of him, and their balls were literally riddling his clothes, although none of them touched him, snatched them from their resting place, raised them aloft in triumph, and soon rejoined his comrades.

This was a brave and noble deed worthy of Jasper, and deserves to be recorded on the page of history, and remembered as long as the name of 'Buena Vista' is heard.

The principal of these facts, we received from Major Gorman, on his return from Mexico, several weeks before the return of the Regiment.

We make this correction with pleasure not to disparage in the least the fair fame of Major Dix, for brave and noble daring, nor yet with a wish to derogate from the high merit of the excellent communication of Mr. Lane, who has exhibited a laudable desire to defend the reputation of his State, and her citizen soldiers, but to do justice to all without distinction of rank, and because we condemn from our heart the disposition too prevalent, to crown the officer with laurels unjustly torn from the brow of the brave private.

GEN. TAYLOR'S POLITICS.

The Express labors in a long, heavy column article, to show that Gen. Taylor is a whig, a whole whig and nothing but a whig. We followed it through, expecting to see it adduce something that it might claim as plausible evidence of its assertions. But we looked in vain. The sum and substance of the evidence of the evidence is about this: The Express heard Mr. Corkscrew say that Mr. Thimble Twist told him that Mr. Pea Straw had heard Mr. Flaggibottom affirm that Greeney Finnerbung had heard Prentice Louisville declare that he was "for him, for him, FOR him," three times over—and that was evidence enough of Gen. Taylor's whiggery. No orthodox whig in the Union need ask for clearer or more lucid evidence of the General's political affinities than this!

But seriously. The Express affects to believe that the Democracy are very much worried about the General's politics, and are very anxious to know what they are. But that paper was never more mistaken in the world. The "contortions" and "grimaces" which that paper alludes, are to be found only in the Whig ranks. The democracy know enough about old Rough and Ready's politics for their present purposes. At the proper time they will know and reveal all that will be necessary on this mooted point. For the present purpose it is sufficient for them to know that he is no more of a Whig than was Gen. Jackson; and that his views on the prosecution of the war, on the Tariff, on the Bank Question, on Abolitionism, and on Mexico "Tom Corwin "shower-bath" Whiggery—will be fully known and proclaimed quite as soon as the Whigs will want to see the development.

Meantime, we commend the following scraps of historical knowledge to the understanding of our Whig neighbors by way of a comforter. The New Orleans Southerner, speaking of Gen. Taylor's political sentiments, says: "We have never heard him state his creed; but we know that he was an original Jackson man. When Gen. Jackson was a candidate the second time against Mr. Adams, Gen. Taylor and General Twiggs were stationed here. They took so active a part for Old Hickory, that the leaders of the Adams party remonstrated with the Secretary of War, and Taylor and Twiggs were banished to the frontiers of Arkansas. Gen. Jackson reciprocated their attachment."

But to give a more minute history of his political course in by-gone days, and up to a not a very remote period: In 1823, he resided in Kentucky, and went for Gen. Jackson. When by Clay's perfidy, in 1825, Gen. Jackson was defeated, that Clay might be made Adams Secretary of State, the whole of Kentucky went with Taylor. From 1825 to 1828 Taylor was the most determined advocate of Jackson's election. He was gratified at his election; went with Jackson on the "Bank of the United States" question; opposed the Bank; was stationed in Carlisle, a colonel in the United States army in 1832, and was the advocate of Jackson for a re-election; voted for him; sustained him on the tariff question; and was then an opponent of the tariff; in short, sustained Jackson's administration throughout in all its principles. In 1836 he resided in Louisiana, where he now resides, and sustained Mr. Van Buren, and voted for him, and was at least a democrat in name and principle until 1839.

Since then we have seen no evidence of his turning whig, and no reason why he should; unless it be the assaults of the whigs upon him and all those engaged in the war—the refusal of Whig Legislatures to vote him a resolution of thanks, and the like whiggish acts.

☞ The last Northern mail brought us the following letter:

"FORT WAYNE, 23d Aug. 1847

SIR:—By an article in your paper of the 29th inst, this morning received, I perceive you say, "the Society of Fathers of Temperance and friends of Literature" was formed by "Drunken Loafers."

This note will explain to you who founded that Order. The undersigned has that honor; and will expect from you a personal apology, sufficient to satisfy a Gentleman.

Your ob't servant, P. G. JONES."

To J. D. DEFREES, Esq.

We spoke of the "Fathers of Temperance" from their published principles, which inculcate drinking spirituous liquors, and if they be anything else than what we have characterized them, all we have to say is, they have a poor way of showing it, and that is all the apology we have to make.—Indiana State Journal.

The Indiana State Journal has got itself into trouble. It contained an article some two weeks ago, reflecting pretty severely upon the order of the "Fathers of Temperance," a secret society recently started at Fort Wayne, which differs from other temperance societies in this:—it allows every member to drink spirituous liquors, to the amount of a gill of brandy, two gills of wine, or a quart of beer per day. Both of the Wayne papers have taken up the cudgels, and the way they wade into Mr. Defrees' affections, is "a caution to snakes!" Hit him again! what business has he to be such a bigot!—Peru Herald.

Mr. Jones was in the habit of getting somewhat "balmy," and one night he was discovered by a neighbor leaning against the side of a church for a support. He hailed him with "Hallo, Jones, you look serious—thinking of joining the church?" "Well" replied Jones, "I incline considerably that way at present."

We clip the above from an exchange paper. Can any one tell us who "Mr. Jones" is?—Is he a Father of Temperance? Where did he come from? "From Maryland?"

☞ DR. JONES, Grand Father of the "Fathers of Temperance," sent a challenge to the editor of the State Journal, for charging that the new order was gotten up by "Drunken Loafers." Defrees don't seem to be frightened much—but says, in substance, that if the "Fathers" are not what he has called them they ought "to take in their sign." What will be the "up shot" of the affair, remains to be seen.—Lafayette Free Press.

EWING'S LETTER.—It is unfortunate for the Hon. W. G. Ewing who has just been defeated for Congress in a fair fight, that he cannot keep his temper, but makes such gross and wanton exhibitions of ill nature as to disgust his best friends. During the canvass with Mr. Rockhill, we are informed by those who heard him, that he descended to the use of most ungentlemanly epithets, and that his speeches were better fitted for a midnight carousal at a doggery, than for the stump. Mr. Ewing was defeated as he deserved, and as he might expect to be in a democratic district, and even after election, through the public prints continues the same gross and insulting language towards his competitor. We are glad there was decency, good sense and Democracy enough in the district, not to permit such a man to fill the seat once honored by Andrew Kennedy, and we hope he will take the hint not to run again for Congress until he's wanted.—Goshen Democrat.

COL. JEFFERSON DAVIS.—The Jackson Mississippian, says of the appointment of this gentleman to the office of U. S. Senator, by Gov. Brown: "No selection could have given greater satisfaction to the whole state than this. The official term of Col. Davis, under this appointment, will continue only until the election of a Senator by the Legislature, which will meet in January next."

The Fort Wayne Sentinel.

Saturday, September 11, 1847.

INDIANA.—On our first page will be found the official returns of the Congressional election in the several districts.

We are still uncertain how the Legislature stands—or rather, what the precise whig majority is. The Senate is a tie: for the House, the State Sentinel gives a list of the members and their politics, by which it appears the whigs have a majority of 2—whigs 51, democrats 49. The State Journal, on the other hand, makes it—whigs 54, democrats 46. We notice one error in the Sentinel's statement. Mr. Pratt (democrat) is put down as the member from Huntington and Whitley, instead of Mr. Swihart, whig.

Democratic victory in Rhode Island.—Benj. Thurston, democrat, is elected to Congress from the western division of Rhode Island.—This is a democratic gain in rather an unexpected quarter. The delegation from Rhode Island is now equally divided—one democrat and one whig.

IOWA.—The late election in this State was of more importance than we had supposed.—Besides electing two democratic members of Congress, and other state officers, elections to fill vacancies in the Legislature were held in three counties which resulted in favor of the democrats, thus giving them a majority in that body, and securing the election of two democratic U. S. Senators next winter. Coonism, Fossumism, and McCartyism can't shine in Iowa after this. The State is regenerated—redeemed, and will henceforth be democratic.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.—So far as elections have been held, 96 democrats, 109 whigs, 1 native and 2 independents have been returned to Congress. Of the members yet to elect, 17 were democrats and three whigs in the last Congress. Should there be no change, the whigs and democrats will be tied, leaving the balance of power with the native and independent members. There will however, most likely be some whig gain in the elections yet to be held, and we think it probable there will be a whig majority of 6 to 10 in the House of Representatives.

HOAX!—Several papers are publishing an account copied from the Baltimore American of a terrible hurricane at Knightstown, Ind., which blew the tent of Welsh and Delavan's Circus "all to flinders," killing several women and children among the spectators, and scaring the four horses on which Levi J. North was riding, so that they ran off and dashed his brains out, &c., &c. We feel sorry to spoil so good a story, but it is our duty to inform our readers that the whole story is a hoax—a vile fabrication.

Speaking of the circus, it may be as well to remind our readers that this identical circus will be here next Saturday, when the curious will have a chance to see the celebrated Levi J. North, the man that didn't have "his brains dashed out" go through his unparalleled performances. He is universally allowed to be one of the first equestrians of the day. This circus is very favorably noticed in several of the papers.

NEW ORLEANS.—The yellow fever still rages with great fatality in New Orleans. The last account we have seen, gives the number of deaths for the previous 24 hours—in New Orleans 61, in Lafayette 19—total 80.

Melancholy Accident.—On Tuesday last, a young lad, on his way to Fulton county in this state, when within a mile or two of this city, fell from the wagon in which he was riding, and the wheels passed over his body causing his death in a few minutes.

Death in a Well.—On Wednesday morning last, Capt. J. G. Braddock, living near this place, lost his life in consequence of inhaling the gas commonly called the Damps. He had descended into his well for the purpose of getting up a rope which had fallen therein, and was immediately overpowered, and before assistance could be rendered he was a lifeless corpse. His loss will be severely felt in his neighborhood. He was Captain of the Albion Dragoons, and had endeared himself to all by his urbanity and kindness.

FROM MEXICO.—We are still without any definite news from Mexico, although we are in daily expectation of accounts of a battle and the occupation of the city of Mexico.

It is rumored that Gen. Taylor is not going to advance on San Luis Potosi, and that a portion of his troops have been ordered to return to Matamoras to be embarked for Vera Cruz and join Gen. Scott.

The guerillas are rapidly increasing in numbers and audacity, and every arrival brings accounts of their depredations.

We give the 'Latest Streak' of the telegraphic dispatches from the Ohio Statesman:

The schooner Mississippi arrived at New Orleans with Vera Cruz dates to the 21st August.

News had reached that place that Gen. Scott's advance guard arrived at Agatta, 20 miles from the Capital, on the 13th.

The reinforcements under Capt. Wells were repulsed at the National Bridge, with the loss of pack mules, horses, and most of the baggage wagons, and returned to Vera Cruz on the 17th.

Twelve dragoons that were despatched to reconnoitre the bridge, had not been heard from, and it was supposed they had fallen into the hands of the guerillas.

It was rumored at Vera Cruz that Gen. Scott met the enemy, and was repulsed with a loss of 800 men, but no reliance was placed on the rumor; but his arrival at Agatta was believed.

The last division of his army, 4000 in number, left Puebla on the 10th of August.

RETURN OF PAREDES TO MEXICO.—Gen. Paredes, ex-President of Mexico has returned to that country, from his exile. He has been in France for some time, and left there for Havana, whence he embarked in the English post office steamer for Vera Cruz. The American consul at Havana wrote to the authorities at Vera Cruz, by the same vessel, to look out for him, but he managed to land and get through the city before the consul's letter came to hand.

Paredes is hostile to the United States, and very bitter against Santa Anna. He is suspected of being in favor of establishing a monarchy in Mexico, and it is not improbable that his visit to France and mysterious return to Mexico may have some connection with that object.

Extract of a letter from Col. Wilson to the Secretary of War.

"HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF VERA CRUZ.—I have the honor to report that on the 14th instant the British steamer Teviot, Captain May, arrived here from England and the Havana, having Gen. Paredes on board, under the assumed name of M. Martinez; who, in consequence of the tardiness of the boarding officer (Capt. Clark,) landed at between 6 and 7, a. m., incognito, from a four oared boat, apparently prepared for the occasion. In his transit through the gate of the mole, he was recognized by an inspector, who took no notice of him. Therefore, I immediately ordered the discharge of both him and Captain Clark—the former for having lost sight of the main object, notwithstanding my office is but a few yards from the mole.

"The General, having arrived at the house of a Mr. Jose G. Zamora, a native merchant, he presented a letter of introduction from Paris, and requested that horses might be directly furnished for himself and servant—a request immediately complied with; and but ten minutes elapsed from the time of his landing till he passed through one of the gates of the city on his way to the interior, without myself or any of my officers being able to avoid it, from the circumstance of his arrival and presence here being unknown, and the letters from the United States consul at the Havana, giving notice of his having left, not being delivered to me until after the General's departure, owing to their being in possession of a lady passenger on board."

INDIANA VOLUNTEERS.

Governor's Proclamation—General Orders, &c.—Governor Whitcomb has issued a proclamation setting forth that Colonel James H. Lane of Lawrenceburgh is authorized to raise a regiment of volunteers from this state to serve during the war, and to be formed wholly or principally from the officers and men who have been in service in Mexico.

The Adjutant General has issued a general order, similar to the one issued last year. By this it appears that the officers of each company are to be elected, after the company is full, by a majority of the members, and the result is to be properly certified and forwarded to the Adjutant General. Three dollars and a half per month will be allowed the volunteer for clothing, and the clothing pay for six months will be advanced at the place of rendezvous, to enable the volunteers to provide themselves good and sufficient clothing. Fifty cents for every 20 miles travel from the place of enlistment to the rendezvous will be allowed, which is amply sufficient to defray all expenses of travel and subsistence until mustered into the United States Service, when every thing necessary will be furnished.

We subjoin a few of the last sections of the General Order, which give all the necessary information respecting the raising of the companies, the priority extended to the returned volunteers, &c., also a letter from Colonel Lane to the volunteers and citizens of Indiana.

XVII. As the authority to raise the regiment, is by the Department given to Colonel Lane, no company will regard itself as accepted, until a written communication from him to that effect, is received by a member of the company. All applications on the subject therefore should be addressed to Col. James H. Lane at Indianapolis. And as it is required by the War Department, that the regiment shall be "formed wholly or principally from the officers and men who have been in service in Mexico," the following rules become necessary for carrying out that object.

1. The invitation is extended to all of the requisite age and vigor, whether they have been in service or not for the purpose of filling up deficient numbers, if necessary. But,

2. Should any who have been in service from this State in Mexico, apply to be received into any company after it is full, without regard to where their residence may have been in the State, they will have the preference, and for that purpose an equal number of fresh recruits who have not been in service and who were last received on the company's list, will give place to them. New recruits will not be disturbed unless applications on the part of volunteers who have been in service are made, and then only to the extent of such applications.

3. After the companies are reported to Col. Lane, he will still give the preference by accepting, in order, such companies, as have the largest number of volunteers who have already been in service in Mexico, until the ten companies composing the regiment are completed.

4. As there are 30 companies of returned volunteers in the State, and as it is not probable that any one of those companies will or can be collected and offered entire and complete, and as but 10 companies are now wanted, the propriety is suggested of different fractions of returned companies joining together under the present requisition, for the purpose of making whole companies.

XVIII. To avoid all error or mistake, the offer of a company to Colonel Lane for acceptance must be accompanied with the complete list or roster of the names of all the members of the company; stating against each name whether the member is a new recruit or a returned volunteer.

XIX. The commissions will be issued after the company to which they belong, is accepted, and of course not until Col. Lane reports it to the undersigned as by him accepted.

XX. No company therefore, will march to the place of rendezvous until directed by Col. Lane, which will be done in all cases by letter.

XXI. The commander-in-chief will repair to the place of rendezvous, when the regiment is concentrated there, to aid in its final organization, and generally of consulting the comfort and welfare of the troops.

TO THE RETURNED VOLUNTEERS
AND CITIZENS OF INDIANA:

It will be seen by the proclamation of His Excellency, Gov. Whitcomb, that I am authorized to organize a regiment of volunteer infantry, in which the Governor will co-operate. In the organization, my object will be to carry out, to the letter, the wishes and instructions of the Secretary of War and the Governor. Every effort will be used to form a corps that will be creditable to the State and service. To this end, it is deemed advisable to secure as many of the returned volunteers as possible. And I fondly hope that the officers and men of the old brigade will at once be found rallying to the standard of their country, with the expectation that one more campaign in Mexico will secure an honorable peace, and place Indiana where she deserves to stand, the first among the first.

J. H. LANE.

Death of Gov. Dorr of Rhode Island.—The New Bedford Mercury announces that Tho's W. Dorr, died at Providence on the 21st ult. He has been in feeble health ever since his confinement, and his death was doubtless accelerated, if not caused, by the barbarous treatment he experienced from his Algerine oppressors.

Election Contested.—A friend writes us from Monroe county, that sufficient cause has been found, and that Dr. Dobson has determined to contest the election of Mr. Dunn. "We are glad to hear it! For though the whig party may have a majority in Congress, and the chance of success seems dark and dubious, RIGHT may triumph over MIGHT.—Vincennes Sun.

☞ We do not much approve this thing of contesting elections, and would not tolerate it, unless some very good and sufficient reasons could be adduced. If the democrats of the 6th district want Dr. Dobson to represent them, they ought to have elected him—they could if they would—and it would have looked better in them, than "crying over spilt milk" and contesting Mr. Dunn's seat. They are unworthy the honor of being represented in Congress by a democrat, and if we were Dr. Dobson we would not condescend to serve anyhow.

LATEST FROM THE RIO GRANDE.

Order of Gen. Taylor arresting the transportation of supplies.—Another massacre, twenty-four men killed. Attack of the trains; others expected.

The steamship Fanny, Capt. Scott, arrived yesterday, she is from Vera Cruz, via Tampico and the Brazos. From the two former ports her news is not as late as that brought by the Alabama; she brings the Matamoros Flag of the 16th inst.—later by three days than previous advices. We make from it the following extracts:

HALTING THE TRAINS.—By an arrival yesterday from Camargo, we are informed that an order had been received there from Gen. Taylor, directing a halt of the heavy wagon trains which were being got ready for Monterey, and which it was supposed were intended for the march upon San Luis. We cannot learn whether the dangers of the road, or a final resolve not to make any further advance with the army, has induced this order; but, from other circumstances, we judge the latter cause to have indicated it. We have no further news by this arrival from the army.

ANOTHER MASSACRE.—Intelligence was received on Saturday last, confirmed since by letters from Cerralvo to the 9th inst., that a scouting party of twenty-seven Texans, commanded by Capt. Baylor, ordered out by Col. Abbott, commandant at Cerralvo, to scour the country between that post and Monterey, had fallen in with a large body of Mexicans, and all been killed but three.

Our letters inform us that Captain Baylor left Cerralvo on the 6th instant, and, following out his instructions, visited several ranchos in the neighborhood of where the recent attacks had been made upon the trains. At two of these ranchos, goods and property captured from the trains were found secreted in the houses, and the guilt of a participation in these robberies being clearly proven against the Mexican residents, the property was retaken, the dwellings of the guilty burned, and several known desperate characters killed. With three prisoners which he had captured, Captain Baylor was returning to the main road, when he found himself surrounded by a large force of Mexicans, stated at 300—undoubtedly the same force which had attacked the trains previously. He was completely hemmed in, and the Mexicans charged upon this small band, killing many of them the first discharge of fire-arms. Three of the party effected their escape by crawling into the chapparal, and got into Cerralvo dreadfully lacerated with thorns. When they last saw Captain Baylor, he was wounded and unhorsed, but still fighting, and only three of his men were in their saddles.—They think it impossible that any more could have escaped, and do not believe that the Mexicans made any prisoners. Two days had elapsed since they got back to Cerralvo, and nothing had been heard of any of the rest of the party.

In the dwelling of one of the Mexicans, made prisoner by Capt. Baylor, (so the men who escaped report,) were found two letters from the chief alcade of Cerralvo to Canales, informing him in whose possession he had placed certain goods captured from the trains, which he (Canales) had empowered him to dispose of in Cerralvo; and, also, giving him to understand, that if he stood in need of arms, horses, or men, he had but to make his wishes known, and they would be attended to.—These letters were in Capt. B.'s possession when attacked, and have been recovered by the Mexicans. In consequence of the report made to Col. Abbott, he has had the alcade and several other influential Mexicans arrested.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER CALEDONIA.

The steamer Caledonia arrived at Boston on the 2d inst, having left Liverpool on the 19th ultimo. She arrived at Halifax on the 31st ult., at 30 minutes past 7, and left again at 11 a. m., on the same day. She brings 137 passengers.

LIVERPOOL, August 19—11 A. M.

CORN MARKET.—Best western canal flour 26s. to 26s. 6d. per barrel; Richmond and Alexandria, 25s. to 25s. 6d.; Baltimore and Philadelphia, 24s to 25s; New Orleans and Ohio, 22s. to 23s; sour, 20s. to 21s. United States wheat, white and mixed, per 70 pounds, 7s. 9d. to 8s. 6d; red, 6s. 9d. to 7s. 6d. Indian Corn, 25s. to 30s. per quarter of 480 pounds. Corn meal, per barrel, 12s. to 13s. 6d. Oats per 45 pounds, 3s. to 3s. 4d.; barley, per 60 pounds, 3s. 9d. to 4s. 3d.; oat meal, per 240 pounds, 30s. to 32s.; rye, per 480 pounds 30s. to 34s.

A serious downward tendency has taken place in the grain market since the departure of the steamer of the 4th inst., only occasionally arrested by broken weather; this, however, has failed to give a firm tone to the market, though at our market yesterday the above quotations were freely realized, and greater confidence was manifested among the buyers.

The certainty of a bountiful harvest at home, coupled with the continued large imports of foreign breadstuffs forced upon our market by necessities of holders, must exercise a still stronger depressing influence upon the trade; and it may be fairly inferred that the markets have not as yet retrograded to anything like the point to which they appear destined to fall.

In the London market a similar languor has taken place, which, accelerated by the alarming failures that had taken place, almost precludes the possibility of reaction. Up to the closing of the corn market in London yesterday, a very limited quantity of English wheat had come to hand; and though there were scarcely any samples to offer, the demand was tolerably steady at average prices. There was rather more inquiry for foreign wheat of the best quality, but middling and inferior kinds were quite neglected. Foreign oats were dull at a reduction of 6d. per quarter.

PROVISION MARKET.—Prime mess beef, per tierce, new, 90s. a 92s. 6d.; ordinary 82s. a 88s.; mess, per barrel, 50s. a 56s.; ordinary 12s. a 48s.; pork, prime mess, per barrel, 65s. a 70s.; old, 51s. a 60s.; mess 65s. a 70s.; prime 48s. a 55s.; bacon, dried and smoked, old, 35s. a 40s. per cwt.; long middles, in salt, 45s. a 62s.

Indiana Institution for the Education of the Blind.—The trustees of this institution give notice that they will be ready to receive pupils, at Indianapolis, by the first of October, and invite the parents and guardians of blind children to make arrangements to send them at the opening of the school. The charge for boarding and tuition will be one hundred dollars per annum, payable in half-yearly instalments; but pupils whose parents or guardians are in such limited circumstances as not to be able to pay therefor, will receive the same free of charge, the trustees being satisfactorily informed of such inability, by a certificate from the clerk of the court, county treasurer, auditor, and other responsible persons. Pupils on entering the institution must in all cases go provided with an adequate supply of good and comfortable clothing, to be replenished by their friends when necessary. In applying for admission to the institution, parents, &c. are requested to state the name and age of the applicant: whether his sight is so far gone as to be unable to read: whether he is otherwise physically deformed; whether he is intelligent and susceptible of mental culture; his personal habits and moral character; and whether his friends are able to pay his expenses. Upon the answer to these questions depends the admission of the pupil. Letters to be addressed to James M. Ray, secretary of the board of trustees, or to Wm. Churchman, principal of the institution, Indianapolis.—New Albany Democrat.

☞ W. G. Ewing, the Indian trader, has issued an exceedingly venomous circular against his successful competitor for a seat in Congress from the 10th district. He asserts that Mr. Rockhill is "a liar, and a contemptible demagogue, unworthy of the respect of honorable men;" that he is also an ignoramus, a tool of designing office hunters and office holders: a stupid demagogue, &c.

Well, admitting that all these imputations be true, they tell but little if anything in favor of the Indian Trader who has been beaten by such a man. If they are not true, but a mere ebullition of spite from a disappointed and defeated man, as we have no doubt they are, they show very conclusively that Ewing is in reality as base as he would like to have Mr. Rockhill appear to be. Poor Ewing!—State Sentinel.

NEW CALL FOR TROOPS.

In reference to the new call for troops, the Union of the 25th has the following:

The War Department has just called for five new regiments, exclusive of the regiment from Ohio, which is already reported to be raised, and is now in progress of being mustered into the public service, and will in a few days be en route for Vera Cruz.

The five regiments now called for are to be drawn from the following States: Two regiments from Kentucky, two from Tennessee, and one from Indiana.

The regiments from Kentucky are to rendezvous—one at Louisville, and the other at Smithland, at the mouth of the Cumberland river.

The regiments from Tennessee are to rendezvous—one at Nashville, and the other at Memphis.

The Indiana regiment will rendezvous at such convenient point on the river Ohio as the Governor of that State may designate.

These five regiments are expected to be rapidly raised, and promptly placed in the public service. Offers have already been made which induced the Executive to designate these States, and to make the necessary arrangements for embodying these troops without delay.

The Administration have determined to do their duty, whether for peace or for war.—They have offered the olive branch. As it may be declined, they have deemed it their duty to prepare for a vigorous prosecution of the war, and to fill up the ranks of the army to the proper standard, as they have been partially thinned by disease and death. Let the enemy be assured that they have to deal with an administration which will not shrink from the most energetic execution of its duties.

The presence of Paredes was not known here when the six regiments were called into service; but that movement may be productive of no serious consequences, yet it will only increase our vigilance. At all events, the President is determined to prepare for every contingency, and to vindicate the rights and honor of his country against every enemy—to meet war as well as to accept of peace.

We are happy to learn that, with a view to avoid the danger of contagion during the prevalence of yellow fever at New Orleans, orders have been given to have the means of transportation ready at Baton Rouge, Natchez, or some other healthy point, for all the volunteers who are ordered or to be ordered to Mexico, during the present state of the health of New Orleans, and who, in their progress to the seat of war, must pass down the Mississippi by that city.

The Ohio State Journal thus whistles Gen. Taylor down the wind. The whigs have made him act the fool, and now they will leave him in the lurch. He ought to have had more sense than to have suffered himself to be humbugged by them.

"It is understood that Gen. Taylor will make a visit to the States before long; and he will then in all probability avail himself of opportunities which his duties in the camp forbid him, of investigating questions pertaining to civil policy—and either give a full and frank declaration of the policy by which he would be guided; or else, in view to the interminable labyrinths of difficulty which surround questions of that sort, and the time, labor, and investigation requisite for forming an opinion on them which would be satisfactory to himself, renounce all pretension to civil promotion.

This latter, we are free to say, we should regard as the part of wisdom on his part. The qualifications for statesmanship are not to be acquired in a day, a month, or a year. They can only be attained through long years of patient application. We apprehend that Gen. Taylor has passed the period of life for entering upon that investigation. A good soldier and true patriot he has shown himself to be. It were better for him, in our view of the subject, to repose upon his laurels than to tarnish them by appearing in a character always difficult to sustain, and for which neither habit nor education have qualified him. We do not believe that he would be likely, under the circumstances, to add anything in the cabinet, to the honors he has won in the field.

SHIPWRECK AND LOSS OF LIFE.

The ship Mameluke, while lying to in a violent hurricane, at noon on the 15th inst., was struck by a tremendous squall, in lat. 48 N. long. 67 W., which careened her so far over that the cargo shifted, and brought her in an instant on her beam ends, so that the weather rail on her quarter deck was within a few feet of the water. The main and mizzen masts were instantly cut away, when the ship righted, but the cargo had burst open the hatches and was floating about, and the vessel was full of water. The starboard rail was submerged. At daylight on the 16th, but 22 of 61 on board were alive. Throughout that day and the next, the storm still raged, and the sea broke violently over the wreck. On the 17th, a vessel was seen, but the weather was too rough for her to approach the wreck. At daylight on the 18th, the vessel was seen bearing down; she proved to be the brig Belize, from Boston, bound to Port au Prince.—The seamen and surviving passengers were taken on board, and the course of the Belize changed for New York. Thirty-five of the steerage passengers, and seven of the crew of the Mameluke, were washed overboard. The Mameluke was on her first voyage, with a full cargo of flour and provisions. Cargo fully insured—vessel partially so.

BREAD VERSUS BULLETS.—The Americans having nobly supplied food for the Irish, we shall look at their flag with increased respect. Their stripes shall be to us significant of a gridiron, and their stars of sugared buns.—Glad are we to find that the American subscriptions have been so nobly acknowledged in the House of Commons. The thanks for bread will go far to keep bullets out of fashion. The Indian Meal Book is, to our mind, a much more delightful volume than any History of the American War; and the directions therein written for the composition of hominy cakes and slap jacks far better than any talk of red-coat tactics. Bombs have had their day; let us henceforth try buns; and wherever America has battered our ships, let her for all time to come batter our frying-pans. To paraphrase the piemen, "Brown-johnny cakes is in—Congreve rockets is out."—Punch.

FROM THE NEW YORK CORRESPONDENT OF THE UNION.

New York, Aug. 26, 1847.

The Tribune and Courier are deep in a wrangle as to the course to be pursued by the 'whig majority' in the House of Representatives—the Tribune insisting that the administration should be confined to a strictly defensive war; and the Courier, on the other hand, (with the Albany Evening Journal,) maintaining that it is the duty of "the whig majority" to give the Executive all the supplies in men and money which he might ask to carry on the war. This is very well, even now—better late than never. But what a commentary it furnishes on the unprincipled and abandoned character of whig party tactics! The very policy which, while in a minority, and in opposition, they clamored for in season and out of season, they are ready to repudiate the moment they think themselves within reach of power and its responsibilities. The Tribune has at least the merit of consistency and apparent attachment to principle. The Courier and its allies but exhibit the utter and unpatriotic profligacy of "whig" partisans, who, a little while ago, for no better object than "to embarrass the administration," were urging with might and main a national policy, which now they are branding as cowardly, traitorous, and everything vile.

Some late financial arrangement of the Secretary of the Treasury, for the purpose of placing $2,000,000 in specie in New Orleans, for the purposes of the war, having been assailed by one or two of the whig journals, the Tribune—of all others—this morning comes to the rescue, and thinks "it a good arrangement, and one for which there is no room for fault-finding; for by it the coin is kept where it belongs, and is useful, and is received and distributed in New Orleans, where it is idle." Mr. Walker's doings must be particularly unexceptionable, when they find a volunteer defends in the Tribune.

Another Horse Thief.—Officer EVAN EWAN, arrested on Wednesday, a man named West charged with stealing a horse from Mr. Lawrence, of Dark county O. The following are the circumstances: Mr Lawrence, some time since on going to the stable, found his horse gone, with the saddle and bridle, and at the bars, where probably the thief had mounted the animal, he found a pocket book containing a one dollar bill, and a paper on which was written the names of an organized gang of horse thieves, of St. Louis, Louisville and Cincinnati, which had, no doubt, been dropped accidentally. Mr. Lawrence came to this place in search of his horse and the thief, and accidentally met West in the street. Not, in the slightest degree, suspecting him, he cordially shook hands, &c.; but West, "let himself out," as being guilty, he suspected the object of Mr. L.'s visit, and said, "O, Mr. Lawrence, I have purchased a horse—a first rate match for yours—and I would like to sell him to you." Mr. L. expressed a desire to look at the animal, and the two walked to the stable. What was Mr. L's surprise when he discovered that the scoundrel wanted to sell him his own horse! Lawrence had West immediately arrested. He underwent examination before M. P. Taylor, Esq., and was handed over to the authorities of Dark county.

Mr. L. said that West was the last man he would have suspected of the theft, as he was an intimate acquaintance, and of a reputable and very wealthy family. West denied any knowledge of the pocket-book. This is the most singular case yet recorded.—Cincinnati Com.

IMPORTANT MOVE IN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE CANADAS.—A document emanating from the office of the Secretary of the English Colonies, has lately come to light. It is dated as far back as December last, and appears in a late number of the Montreal Herald. The English Secretary of State indicates in this document a design to incorporate the whole of the British North American Colonies, as an ultimate measure; in the meantime taking the first steps to that consummation by giving the several governments a common custom house and a common post office. The Montreal Herald, viewing the despatch favorably, adds, that it is plain that the great railway from Halifax to Toronto forms a portion of the plan which the Secretary contemplates.

According to previous notice, on last Monday, the contract for the construction of a Lock and Dam at the Grand Rapids was taken. Messrs. SAM'L. and ISAAC GULBERTSON, of Pennsylvania, got the contract, upon a bid of $55,820; the Company furnish the iron necessary for construction, which, it is thought, will cost $5,000 or $6,000.

The contract has been taken at about $12,000 less than was anticipated by the friends of the improvement—as the estimate of the Lamasor—being a safe one—placed the cost of construction at $70,000. Hence there is a surplus of about $20,000 of the stock subscribed in the hands of the company, which may be applied to the clearing out of the snags or other minor purposes of navigation.—Vincennes Sun.

Irish Relief.—The editor of the American Almanac wishes to place in the next number, a list of contributions for the relief of Ireland. Those who have had charge of the contributions, at various places, are desired to write the particulars to Francis Bowen, Boston Mass.

We are informed that the notorious Maria Monk is now an inmate of the State Prison, at Sing Sing, having been sent thither on a conviction for grand larceny.—Brooklyn Advertiser.

Who are quacks. The administrator of calomel?—the professor of the Water Cure?—the disciple of the great Hahnemann who administers his minute doses, and wonders at the nonbelief of the million?—the Steam doctor?—the Botanical doctor?—the mesmerizer?—and the ten thousand inventors of Patent curealls! which is THE ONE true system?—we pause for a reply. Our Courts of Justice show the disheartening, bleeding, calomel cruelty often arraigned for manslaughter; but like a band of brothers they swear each other through thick and thin. The Water cure has men like Sir E. L. Bulwer to prove its powerful medicinal agency, over all other remedies. Then steps forth a host of believers in Homœpathy the ONLY true system, say they,—oh no, it is steam only, says a most respectable group, which you can rely upon. It cured us when all else failed;—hold! says another party, botanical treatment has proved itself the only safe and reliable means of cure, we have been through all your systems and they all failed—botanical treatment cured us; —A hearty voice was heard as from millions of voices—Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture—the Great American Remedy, after all other means in all other medicines proved futile, saved our lives. So we go reader, and the agents of this medicine in this place will give you a pamphlet, look into it. Dr. G. C. Vaughn Lithontriptic sells at a rate of many thousands per year.

COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE SENTINEL,
Fort Wayne, September 11, 1847.

The competition among Wheat buyers keeps up the price here beyond what the eastern markets would seem to justify. Buyers would like to reduce it to 75c, but sellers stick to 80c, and the price has fluctuated between the two, during the week. At the time of writing the Eighties have it; but it is quite probable before this reaches our readers the Seventy-fives may have the control.

Several hundred bushels of cranberries have been shipped this week. They have been bought at 37 to 50 cents per bushel. The crop is very large and fine this year, and hundreds of persons are gathering them, although not near ripe. It is to be regretted that people will persist in gathering this rich fruit before it is fit for use. If they could only have patience to let the cranberries get ripe they would sell for double the price at present obtained.

NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL.—DR. OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE.—The following extract is from the farmers' and emigrant's Hand Book, a valuable work of about 500 pages, recently published by Messrs. Appleton and Co., New York. In chapter 8, page 295, the author speaking of Fever and Ague, remarks:

"There is a most valuable medicine sold in most of the Western cities, which we can conscientiously recommend for Fever and Ague, and other bilious diseases; it is the INDIA CHOLAGOGUE, which is prepared by Dr. Osgood of New York, who has made the bilious disorders of the West his special study. We are no friend to those medicines usually called patent, but we have had ample opportunities of knowing the invaluable effects of the Cholagogue in bilious cases."

The speedy and permanent relief afforded by the Cholagogue, arises from its prompt and healthy action upon the blood, cleansing it from bile and restoring it to purity. Thus striking at the root—its tendency is not simply to suspend disease, but to remove the cause, on which it depends. It is equally adapted to all ages and all conditions of the system. 4

GREAT NATIONAL CIRCUS
The only perfect managed establishment in the United States, comprising upwards of
TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY MEN AND HORSES!
ADMITTANCE ONLY 25 CENTS.
Will be exhibited at FORT WAYNE, on Saturday, the 18th day of September.

This grand Equestrian Cavalcade will be preceded by the most celebrated BRASS BAND, in an elegant and costly Chariot drawn by twelve beautiful cream-colored Horses, the truly imposing entrance of this noble and magnificent processional cavalcade. The surpassing beauty of the thorough-bred horses, the gorgeously decorated carriages, near thirty in number; the designs and gildings of which are by the most distinguished artists, compels a comparison that places this establishment at the head of every public exhibition. In fact a larger fortune has been expended in the scenes and acts presented by the superior artists picked and chosen from a hundred stars, in order to render this the first and most superior Equestrian Company in this or any other country in the world.

Among this extensive and numerous Company, is the celebrated and far famed

Mr. LEVI J. NORTH, the Great Equestrian Hero, who has far surpassed the most celebrated rivals in this or any other country, and has borne the palm of superiority before the Royal Families of England and France, and has returned covered with Medals of the highest honor and applause.

Mr. J. J. NATHANS, the most celebrated two to four and six horse rider, will appear in many of his admirable and astonishing acts of balancing his pupils, forming many most beautiful scenes.

The great unrivalled clown, JOHN MAY, the brightest star in this country, and decidedly the best in his profession.

Mrs. WOODS, the graceful alemande rider, and leader of the Equestrian Cavalcade.

Mr. E. WOODS, the grand representative of the Red Man of the Forest.

JOHN GLENROY, the great bare backed horse rider, is a youth of wonderful skill and immense equilibrium, performing unheard of feats without saddle or bridle; he makes tremendous leaps through balloons and over silken raised barriers, as numerous as can be contained in the circumference of the ring. His style is of the first class of his peculiar school; his somersets, or throwing himself head over heels, (while his courser is at the greatest speed) and alighting firmly upon his horse's back, is a proof of the eminence that may be attained by unceasing practice and undaunted resolution. This young man, who is a pupil of Mr. Cadwallader, may be considered as one of the noblest features of the Company.

FRANK PASTOR will appear in a touching infantile and admirable act on a single horse.

F. BROWER, N. JAMESON and J. STICKNEY, the great representatives of the Ethiopian character.

J. BANKER and G. DUNBAR, and a host of other talented performers.

The highly celebrated dancing and trick horse TAMMANY, taught and performed by Mr. Levi North, who astonishes every beholder in his unparalleled acts.

The two eccentric ponies, BLACK MOGGY and JENNY LIND, will appear in their diverting double acts, and go through many very pleasing performances.

Equestrian Director—Mr. J. J. NATHANS.
Riding Master—Mr. N. JOHNSON.

The great water pavilion is entirely new, and appropriately decorated and furnished with carpeted seats for the accommodation of three thousand spectators. The arrangement of the interior is such as to preclude the possibility of an attempt to disorder or indecorum.

Performance to commence at 2½ o'clock, P. M., on Saturday, and at 7½ in the evening.

C. GRISWOLD Agent.

The above will be Exhibited at Wabash on the 15th, at Lagro on the 16th, at Huntington on Friday the 17th day of September.

FARM FOR SALE.

I WILL SELL my farm, lying directly on the Piqua road, two and three-fourth miles from Fort Wayne, commonly called the "Henderson Farm" or "three mile House." On said farm there is a large two story house of hewed logs, with weather boarding, a large framed stable, 35 by 21 feet, and 16 feet high, with a frame shed adjoining, 16 by 24 feet. Also a frame barn, 62 by 30 feet, and 20 feet high, well finished, with room for 8 horses; there is a frame shed attached 40 by 16 feet, together with outbuildings, such as smoke house, ash house, &c. &c. in fine, all of the conveniences for keeping all kinds of stock, from a chicken to an elephant. Two good wells of water. There is eighty acres under first-rate improvement, well fenced, with Osage fence, 30 acres of which is in meadow, a fine young orchard, containing apples and peaches. Also a small nursery—a nice garden filled with all kinds of shrubbery, fruit trees, &c. There is also two or lots of land adjoining the improved part, which can be had with the farm, making in all 243 acres, running three fourths of a mile direct from the Piqua road towards "Bowsong's Mill," and extending back to the "Richardville Reserve." There are two wells within a quarter of a mile of said place. The wood land is well timbered, with the best of white oak, hickory, beech, sugar maple, black walnut, bass wood, &c. It is a fine and healthy situation for a tavern, [one being kept there at present], it being on one of the most travelled roads in the State, and surrounded by honest, industrious, and intelligent citizens. The whole tract will be sold together, or the improved part separated, to suit the purchaser. Terms—One half down. On the balance a reasonable credit will be given, the purchaser giving good and satisfactory security.

For further particulars enquire at F. D. Lasselle, E. F. Colerick, or at the Post Office, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

SOPHIA HENDERSON,
Pr F. D. LASELLE.

HERE we are again at the old Stand, the extreme Eastern store, on Columbia street (North side) with more and cheaper GOODS than we ever offered in this market. It has been said by some of our friends, that we have more Goods than we can sell, but they do not understand how exceedingly low we design selling them, we are determined to sell at prices that will compete with any in this market, and that too without standing in the street to hail every person to buy our Goods. It has been a matter of speculation with men engaged in the Mercantile business, whether it is possible to sell goods in an equitable manner or not, or in other words, whether it is possible to sustain A One Price Store, where all could buy goods without fear of paying an Extra Price to make up for the loss on a previous sale. The subscribers wish to say to the public that they have been engaged for the last eighteen months in endeavoring to solve the above question and it is with great satisfaction that we now promulgate the fact that the plan of selling goods at a small advance and uniform price works well, we take this method of informing our customers that we feel gratified for the patronage heretofore so generously bestowed and the public generally, that we have a full and complete stock of

Cash for 20,000 Bushels
OF WHEAT,
At the Empire Mills.

WE are prepared to pay Cash and the Highest Price for 20,000 bushels of good merchantable Wheat.

Farmers and Teamsters will save themselves much trouble and expense by driving directly up to the STONE MILLS and unloading; they will always get the highest price, and avoid the annoyance of being pestered by the barkers and whipper snappers from the Stores, who now infest our streets and are such a bore to all who bring wheat to our market. We are not much given to boasting; but as some of our neighbors are talking of wanting 10,000 bushels of wheat, we would inform wheat raisers that we can take in 20,000; as our Mill, besides being the best, is the biggest, the highest, and the strongest in the country. We have a convenient WAGON-YARD and STABLE, for teams coming to the Mill, and a HOUSE for the Teamsters; we always furnish feed for the horses, and occasionally throw in Supper and Breakfast for their drivers. This is nothing new with us—we have always thought it our duty to do so, and should not now mention it if our neighbors had not set the example.

We keep constantly on hand FLOUR OF THE BEST QUALITY and all kinds of Mill Stuff; and promptly grind every thing in the shape of Custom Work—always excepting White Oak Tan Bark, or the "face of the Poor."

THE Valuable Mill property belonging to Fairfield & Freeman 14 miles south of town. This property consists of a Flouring Mill with three run of stones, in good order—a first rate new Saw Mill, with a house attached to it to make shingles, lath, and put in other machinery. Also, a dwelling house, stables, a house for Country customers, and every convenience, and about 9 acres of land and any other privilege on the East side of the River.—This stream affords a plenty of water at any season of the year, and its situation makes it the best mill property in the west.

Mr. Freeman's health is so poor he cannot attend to the business, and not being convenient for me to attend, as I live to far off, &c.—The payments will be easy, as I am not much in want of money. I should like to keep a shot in the locker. Persons wishing to purchase please call on the subscriber.

The Parlor Magazine.

J. T. HEADLEY, EDITOR.

THIS Magazine, formerly under the care of D. Mead, commences its Fourth Volume under the editorship of J. T. Headley, author of "Napoleon and his Marshalls," "Washington and his Generals," "Letters from Italy," &c. &c. We hazard nothing in saying that this Magazine is destined to fill a large place in public estimation; that it will not only maintain its present enviable reputation, but earn to itself a far higher popularity, and become the companion of many a circle to which it is now a stranger, gladening by its presence, while it exerts an influence pure, elevating and healthful. The editor will bend his energies to make this THE MOST POPULAR MAGAZINE of the day, and while availing himself of assistance from the best writers, he will draw freely from his own exhaustable store.

It will continue to maintain its high moral tone, and nothing will be admitted into its columns which will minister to the corrupt passions and tendencies of youth, or which the author "dying would wish to blot."

The design is to offer the public a Magazine containing all the attraction and interest of the lighter periodicals, while it moves in a different path, and is not exposed to the same objections.

It is issued monthly, commencing with May containing 32 pages of original matter, printed on fine paper, in handsome covers, with a splendid steel engraving, and colored flower in each number, with occasional music and is got up in every respect in the best style of the art, making a yearly volume of 384 pages, full of choice illustrations, and forming an elegant ornament to the parlor table, or a rich and valuable present to a friend.

Back numbers and volumes always on hand.

Price only $2 per year, if in advance. 3 copies for $5. 8 copies for $12.

The Press and the public are daily awarding us the very highest testimonials of the editorial ability of our Magazine, and the beauty and taste with which it is embellished, placing it in the very first rank in every respect, among the thousands of which we select the following:

"Mr. Headley's lively and versatile pen is admirably fitted to give a charm to a work like this."—New York Evangelist.

"Under the editorial charge of J. T. Headley, the most popular writer of the age, we predict a still stronger interest will be taken in this already well known and valuable Magazine.—The name of Headley alone is a sure guaranty of success."—Farmer and Mechanic.

"The new editor has infused that intense and absorbing interest into its pages for which his writings are remarkable. The work has gained in the power which enchains the sympathies and rivets the attention, without losing anything of its former ornate and elevated morals and style."—Windham Co. Democrat.

"We wish this Magazine much success under its present guardianship."—Advocate and Journal.

"The editor is well known as one of the most brilliant writers of the day."—American Agriculturist.

"Their motto is to mingle the beautiful with the good."—N. E. Review

"Mr. Headley contributes to the present May number liberally in his usual pleasing style."—N. Y. Tribune.

"His talents will add greatly to the interest of the publication, and have great influence in extending its circulation."—Christian Intelligencer

"This very neat monthly is gaining favor, refining and softening the roughness of life, and, blessing the family where it alights, 'Esto perpetua.'"—Massachusetts Eagle.

"This is unquestionably the best Magazine of that kind in the country."—Nantucket Enquirer.

"Beautiful as it is valuable."—Tru[illegible] server.

Smith's Tonic Syrup.

FOR THE CURE OF AGUE AND FEVER OR CHILLS AND FEVER. This remedy has now been extensively used throughout the west and south-west for the last seven years and within that period has permanently cured over 200,000 cases, in all its various forms, many of which had been from one to three years standing, and had resisted all the usual remedies known in this country, and in no case did this medicine fail where the directions were followed properly. Such is its invariable success that a large number of respectable practitioners of medicine, in various parts of the country use and prescribe it in preference to Quinine and all other remedies.

The public are assured that it is not only certain in its effects as a tonic, but being composed entirely of vegetable medicines, is perfectly innocent in any cases or circumstances, and may be given to females, infants, and all persons of debilitated and delicate constitutions without the least fear whatever of any unpleasant effect.

This medicine is composed of articles of the primest and purest quality, and is always made by the proprietor in person, after the established forms of pharmacy, (which cannot be said of the various Tonics now flooding the western and south-western country,) and in this respect alone is rendered greatly superior to the remedies usually prepared and sold in this country.

By its supiant and powerful diaphoretic properties added to its Tonic qualities, it is rendered eminently superior to Quinine and other remedies, as a general and popular Tonic in all cases whatever where Tonics are proper to be administered. The proprietor would therefore respectfully invite practitioners and the public generally to give it a fair trial, and they will then be convinced of its great superiority over all other remedies now in use for the purposes specified.

For the satisfaction of those not acquainted with its valuable curative powers, the following letters and certificates are given from the many in his possession:

We, the undersigned, do hereby cheerfully certify, that we have sold largely Dr. Smith's Tonic Syrup in our neighborhood, and in very many cases have seen and known it used among our customers, and from what we have seen and known of its use, do, without hesitation recommend it to our friends and the public generally, as the most speedy, permanent and innocent remedy that we have ever seen or heard of in the cure of Ague and Fever or Chills and Fever, and we do believe that it will in no case fail to cure if the directions are properly followed.
